

We aim to provide a conservative voice and promote informed and productive discourse on campus. We have taken initiatives such as get the vote out on campus and co-founded a national initiative "Students for Carbon Dividends," among other work. In the fall of 2020, we had former Congressman Bob Dold speak to the group and hosted multiple debate viewing events. We tend to have meetings every other week.