

Geirteer Cottage

June 14th

1899

My very dear Cousins,

I gave your kind invitation to Jonathan, and he feels with me that it is exceedingly kind of you to invite us to drive with you, and that he would greatly enjoy doing so some day, but we think meanwhile that it would be very nice if you would come over

and see us.

Hannah Simpson leaves us ~~home~~ on Sept. day and we shall be quite lonely without her, and we want you to come over

on Seventh-day if you will and stay
over First-day with us. Do arrange to do so if you can for Jonathan is better for having company, or I always enjoy it, and am
so much better now that I can thoroughly enjoy it. Come over either morning or afternoon, whichever suits you best; &

if our little meeting is opened, as it may be, on First-day we may take you to it.

Hoping very much that you will come & thus give us a
real pleasure

Very lovingly yours
H. C. E.
