

85<sup>v</sup> Dear George

Phila<sup>d</sup>: 11 mo 1769-

I think it may agreeable to you to know, that our friend Rachel Wilson intends to be in this City next Sixth Day evening, to spend int<sup>l</sup> all probability the quarterly meeting amongst us & leave us either third Day afternoon or fourth Day Morning. <sup>when Bro. Fisher tells me I expect such</sup> If any of you incline to be here during that time, as its perhaps the last we shall ever see that worthy Friend, shall be pleased with your company. — particularly <sup>if</sup> our dear Molly Barber inclines to come down <sup>more especially</sup> At the season of the year is likely soon to confine her, for a long time, her company will be very acceptable notwithstanding she was so cross at the Yearly Meeting & was not so kind as to write me a line about it; but I will forgive all if she will come now. I was glad to hear from our dear Friend Susanna Lightfoot & her husband that you had mutual so acceptable a time at Shrewsbury & on the way which indeed gave <sup>me</sup> very great satisfaction. With near affection I remain Second Day Morning. as usual ~~thine~~ to the utmost of my Power. Anth<sup>y</sup> Benezet

The Bearer Jeremiah Lichering is a young Friend who came over from England this fall in company with Rob<sup>t</sup>. Proud's Brother, he has been brought up as a Farmer & would be glad to find employ that way amongst friends in your parts. Perhaps Cousin Will<sup>m</sup> Smith or thy Brother may be assistant to him therein.

(Evans Collection) gift

I think it is worth a trial
I have this book which I think is worth your attention, it is a very good one, and I think it is worth your attention.

AB - 11 mo 1769 - Rachel Wilson abt. sailing for England

No. 4

I have this book which I think is worth your attention, it is
a very good one, and I think
it is worth your attention.

Dear Mr. Wilson

Yours truly
John A. Wilson

I have this book which I think is worth your attention, it is
a very good one, and I think
it is worth your attention.