[Nov 2, 1916] Thursday night ②

To-morrow morning we have song practice at seven, & as I must do fifty pages of history before breakfast, (that being the only time I can get the book, I expect to get up between five and half past five. It's a joyous prospect to-morrow, too, come our class elections, my special gym. work, hockey, & lantern night also I want to go to the pipe to order Aunt's plant, & to get a special delivery stamp. How on earth can I do it all? Of course all the girls are older than I am. I said long ago they would be. But I can't see any more difference than at school, with those in my own class. Of course senior! That's different. But they're all nice too. K. B. is very sweet, & so are the rest. But what wouldn't I give to know "Hell" Harris! Oh! Oh! I wonder if I ever will. I'd do any thing to!

To-night I'm going swimming, in a few minutes. Then to bed. And 5 a.m. Ugh! I've answered the Besly invitation, as you wanted.

I'm going to get the additional cups & saucers on Saturday in town. Those parties like the breakfast were given by the whole class in this hall, not by one girl.
Lots of love
Hattie
