FOOTBALL TEAM HEARS HARMON

Rutgers Coach To Speak At Football Night Saturday

Plans have been completed for the annual Football Night, honoring Swarthmore High School's undefeated and untied 1948 team. Head Coach Harvey Harmon, who has made Rutgers University one of the top football factors in the East, will be the speaker Saturday night. Harmon, well known in this vicinity since he formerly coached the Penn team, is rated as high for his fine influence with young men as for his coaching and speaking ability.

Dr. John Michael, who knows the members of the football squad about as intimately as their parents, will be master of ceremonies. He can be expected to season his remarks with some apt observations drawn from his acquaintance with the boys of Swarthmore.

A new feature this year will be the awards of certificates for outstanding performance to players on some of the big college teams of the vicinity. These star players will be present, seated among the members of the high school squad at the dinner. The awards are being made by the Swarthmore Citizens Athletic Committee, which sponsors the annual Football Night.

The dinner for the football squad, their parents, coaches and close friends and the visiting talent will be held in the high school cafeteria, starting shortly after 6 o'clock. Members of the Citizens Athletic Committee will double in the capacity of waiters, the food will mostly be prepared by wives of the committee members, and Superintendent Frank R. Morey will again do the carving.

The main program, featuring the address by Coach Harmon and the awards of gold footballs to the high school players, will begin at 8 o'clock in the high school auditorium. The band and the high school cheer leaders will be there to do their part.

Members of the three Junior High School football teams will be given special recognition at this year's celebration. These younger boys, the high school players of tomorrow, have turned in some fine performances this past season. The lightweights, coached by "Herr" Snyder, (Continued on page 8)

Six of the eight All-Philadelphia players on the Middle Atlantic made All-American. Miss Putnam is one of the three hold-overs from last year.

S.H.S. DEFEATS LANSDOWNE 20-0

Garnet Eleven Closes 2nd Victorious Season

Millard Robinson's Swarthmore High School gridders rolled over the host 11 of Lansdowne, Thanksgiving morning to the tune of 20-0.

Larry Dalton went along on his scoring ways by annexing his ninth TD of the season late in the 1st period. This score followed the first touchdown by Fred Campbell, with left end Rich Terry adding another tally in the third period. Art Barraclough, playing one of his greatest games at right guard, broke into the scoring column for the first time in his career by place-kicking the extra points on the first and third touchdowns.

This victory brought the Garnet's string to 19 straight, and completed its second straight unbeaten, untied campaign. Captain Avery Blake, playing his last game, added another leaf to his outstanding record and played what may have been his greatest game. Barraclough looked like a million at his post, and Milton Helmuth and Jack Dodd, also Senior linemen, turned in outstanding performances. Jack Houtz, Dalton, Don Dickinson, Bill McIntire, Bill Froebel, and Jack Smith also bade farewell to football at S. H. S. in this exciting contest.

Barraclough kicked off to the Lansdowne five, and after four tries for a first down, the Lands sent Dick Jordan into punt formation. The entire Garnet line was in the Lansdowne backfield before Jordan could get his kick away, and Terry put his hands on the ball for the block which sent the pigskin back to the end zone. Campbell scooped it up and fell over for the first score of the day. Barraclough's kick split the uprights to make the count 7-0.

On the next series of downs following the kick-off, Barraclough downed the Lansdowne carrier for a seven-yard loss. Following Lansdowne's kick, Houtz, Dickinson and Dalton lugged the leather. After a 10-yard aerial from Dana Swan to Campbell, Dalton bucked through from the one.

The second quarter was scoreless, but it found the big Red moving from Lansdowne's 42 only to be stalled on the six. No sooner had the Lands taken over than Blake heaved Tom Heaney back to the one. On third down, from punt formation, Lansdowne pulled the surprise of the day with a pass and gained a first down on the 36. The ball changed hands but the halftime score remained at 13-0.

The third quarter was yet young when Terry broke through from left end, snatched a lateral intended for Wilmer Grubb and merrily romped 35 yards to paydirt. Barraclough added the final point of the day to make the score stand at 20-0.

The remainder of the game was a punting story with the Garnet's kicker, McIntire, keeping Lansdowne back on its heels until the final whistle.

COUNCIL MAKES TRAFFIC STUDY

Special Committee Gives Report On Chester Rd. Conditions

The Special Highway Committee of Borough Council, Dr. John M. Pearson, chairman, reports progress in their study of traffic conditions on Route 320 through the borough. The first part of the study has established the following facts:

(1) Traffic on Route 320 in Swarthmore is at a level at which traffic control signals are probably warranted and expert advice from State Highway engineers is being secured to make a specific recommendation to Borough Council.

(2) There are no plans for alteration or relocation of the State Highway (Route 320) within the borough. In spite of the fact that traffic surveys show Chester road to be overloaded no immediate plans for relief have been made by the State. This is because there are a number of more urgent traffic problems demanding solution in this highway district.

Route 320 traffic has been detoured to Woodland avenue on account of construction of the viaduct over the Shortline and the relocation of Sproul road between Baltimore pike and State road. Apparently this has caused some concern to residents along North Chester road and along Cedar lane. The unaccustomed heavy traffic on the former is an annoyance to North Chester road residents; and the unaccustomed quiet on Cedar lane has led to rumors that reconstruction of Cedar lane is projected. The latter has no basis in fact.

In regard to the detour we have permission of contractor James J. Skelly to quote him as follows: (Continued on page 7)

New Club Members To Be Feted Tuesday

The new members will be guests at a luncheon at the Woman's Club next Tuesday, December 7, at one o'clock. Mrs. Percy Gilbert is chairman. Following the luncheon there will be a group of solos by Mrs. Robert West of Clifton, who is herself a new member. Mrs. George Purnell, magician, will then take the stage to entertain. Reservations are to be made with Mrs. Frank Bromley, Swarthmore 3155, by December 3.

Handwork was the theme last Tuesday when Mrs. Walter Dickinson presented her American Home program. Many beautiful and interesting exhibits were brought in by the members. Mrs. L. H. Sperow gave an interesting lecture and showed her fine handwork, quite inspiring her audience to go home and sew. Mrs. Harold Bodke, State chairman of American Home, and Mrs. Allen Center, Delaware County chairman, were present as guests.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold R. Goodwin returned to their home in Rose Valley on Sunday from a two weeks visit to Greensboro and Pinehurst, N. C.

RED CROSS PLAN VETERANS CHEER

Cookies And Gift Money Should Be Sent To Mrs. Good

The Education, Instruction and Supply Service of the Swarthmore Branch of the Red Cross met at the home of the chairman Mrs. John L. Good on Tuesday, November 30.

Swarthmore's Christmas cookie quota for the three Service Hospitals in this area is 20 pounds. Women who make good man-sized cookies for Christmas are invited to send some via Mrs. Good's committee to these hospitals. The Red Cross members in this Chapter area are making every effort to give each hospitalized veteran a Christmas present. Two dollars will provide a present for one veteran. Contributions of cookies and money should be made before December 15 to Mrs. John L. Good, 512 Harvard avenue.

The Education, Instruction and Supply Service wishes to thank the many people who contributed to the "Gifts to Give" program in November for the Veterans Hospital at Coatesville. Many of the veterans confined at this hospital are financially unable to send presents to their families on special anniversaries. This program provides them with gifts to give and in some measure helps boost the morale of the men and their families.

JUNIOR CLUB TO HOLD PARTY

Mrs. Carl Watson from Strawberry and Clothiers' department store spoke on "Christmas Decorations and Gift Wrapping" last Friday evening at the meeting of the Junior Woman's Club in the club house. Using red and green table covers with contrasting appointments, her center pieces were made up of greens and berries found in the woods, with colored candles as added attractions. Mrs. Watson gave detailed instructions to her audiences as she made these table arrangements.

Next Tuesday evening the board of directors will meet at the home of Rosamond Jones for a business meeting. The following Tuesday, December 14 is the annual covered dish supper and Christmas party.

ART CENTER EXHIBIT

Thelma Hartman, instructor in textile painting at the Community Arts Center, directs an exhibition of work by Center members which opens Sunday, December 5. The show is open to the general public on the sixth and will be open to all interested persons until December 19.

The total membership in the Center has topped the 500 mark. Memberships may still be taken out.

Cubs Vend Christmas Wares

All ten Dens of local Cub Scouts are selling Christmas cookies, wreaths, centerpieces, candlelogs, and waste baskets. Probably one of the young boys in your neighborhood will knock at your door soon in this salesman venture which is designed to raise money for Borough Cub work.

Germany Is Still Hungry

Mr. and Mrs. Herbert F. Fraser and their daughter, Miss Sarah Fraser returned to Wallingford Hills after 14 months in the American zone of Germany. Living in Stuttgart where Mr. Fraser was Chief of Public Finance for Wurttemberg-Baden, Mrs. Fraser, who was "just a wife", kept house with rented furnishings and prepared food shipped in by the American Army.

For Germany is still hungry. There was barely enough food for her own citizens, let alone for the American personnel and their families. The 1500 calories a day, the legal allowance to each German, was often cut to 1200 because supplies were low, and not even a ration book insures the marketer of getting his quota. Since the currency reform in June, the situation has been somewhat ameliorated. For currency reform, although it has not yet done all that was expected, as Mrs. Fraser says, "like a major operation, it is not a blessing but a necessary evil which though painful in its immediate effects, has for its ultimate purpose the health and well-being of the patient."

The situation is such that Americans, renting furniture, vacuum cleaners and other household furnishings, pay their rent in food. Mrs. Fraser paid her rent for instance, in coffee and fat.

American, who try to help their German friends and acquaintances are showered with gifts, hemstitched handkerchiefs, bouquets of flowers and pictures which are given, not to please, but to repay, for the best Germans are too proud to want "something for nothing".

It is the cities that are suffering the most, for the country people, the farmers, are not so badly off. There is not a lot of sickness, and children are rosy in a way that city children cannot be until conditions are changed.

Cities Bombed

Cities are bearing results of the war in other ways. Bombed-out buildings are still standing with sagging floors and hanging stoves and beds, and every wind blows the rubble through the streets. Every day for over a year, small cars on narrow gauge tracks in Stuttgart have been running carting away the debris, and the job has hardly begun.

Straw shelters, unwanted and untended by the towns they live in. Many are those who fled from the Russian zone, both before and after the end of the war, some are expellees from other countries, people of German nationality who have been expelled to prevent the possibility of future Sudetan Problems; and others, like Mrs. Fraser's maid, are homeless people whose villages were destroyed and their families killed. But whatever the cause, the "Fluechtlinge" are not wanted. They keep themselves busy with handicrafts and small industries, put on exhibits and sales of their work, but they are not really living.

German Attitudes

Many Germans are bitter about the senseless destruction ordered by Hitler after all hope of victory had vanished—bridges destroyed, roads torn up—but it is seldom that one will blame himself or his own people for the present conditions in Germany. One man, the mayor of a little village, did volunteer, in his limited English, that "We Germans are a very bad people." But while such comments are refreshing, they do not express the general attitude.

Public opinion here is the democratic way of running things. But Public Opinion in Germany allowed things to happen to the Jews as far back as 1929. To many this silent consent to such conditions is unforgivable, but the Germans argue that things have not been normal since 1918. Inflation followed the peace, then came Hitler, and later the second war with nightly air raids. And as Nazi policies grew steadily worse, people who did not like them did nothing about it because they did not want civil war, and therefore their objections had no "teeth" in them.

A woman's Congress on Democracy was held in May, 1948 in Frankfurt by professional women, and while the reactions of intelligent and highly educated people were enthusiastic and reassuring, they are the reactions of women educated before the days of Hitler. The German Youth of today, educated by the Nazi party, and confronted with conflicting doctrines of Communistic propaganda on one side, and democracy on the other, are a confused generation.

It is a challenge to the United States, Mrs. Fraser feels, and there is still time for us to meet it.

BETTER SERVICE AT LOWER FARES

Truth is, we can't

RED ARROW LINES, at this moment, is delivering the best transportation service in the company's history. Almost 60% of the motor buses in service are new, having been purchased since the war ended. They are larger, faster, easier riding.

Schedules have been stepped up, maintenance facilities improved and still further expansions are planned. Also many improvements have been launched for the comfort of our patrons, including the 60% enlargement of the bus loading platform at the 69th Street Terminal.

Such are the strides toward better service that already have been taken. More are coming before this year is over; still more in 1949, when, among other things, new street cars will be added. And all of this has been done in the face of rapidly soaring costs for everything we buy, particularly new vehicles. For instance:

This 29-Passenger Bus Cost Us $6,400 in 1933

This 45-Passenger Bus Cost Us $16,726 in 1948
The 36-Passenger buses now in service cost $14,088 in 1947.

That's a lot of difference in cost, yet to better serve our patrons $2,000,000 will have been spent for new equipment between V-J Day and the winter of 1948-49.

Our Employees Deserve More, Too
The men who operate and maintain Red Arrow buses and street cars for the most part live in the territory served by the company. They are neighbors of yours. Support the same merchants you do; support the schools, the churches, the municipal governments you do.

Skyrocketing living costs have hit them just as they have hit you. Taking bus operators as typical, their wages, on an hourly basis, already have been more than doubled. Yet the cost of living continues to climb. Therefore, after a period of negotiations, contracts effective January 1st, 1949, have been signed providing for a further increase of 10¢ per hour and other benefits. All this takes money, much money.

Average Fare Now Is Less Than 1928
That's hard to believe. Yet it is true. Despite the higher costs of everything we buy, everything we do, the average fare paid to Red Arrow Lines—either bus or street car—is less than twenty years ago.

Red Arrow Lines believes its first responsibility is to the communities it serves. That calls for efficient service and contented employees. We have 69th Street Terminal. Kiddies under twelve, not using school rates, may ride at a 25% discount.

For most passengers this does not involve an increase in fares, but merely a discontinuance of discounts and 15¢ fare zones, making the base fare for all zones 10¢. So far in 1948 approximately only 4 out of 10 passengers have taken advantage of the opportunity for discounts, so actually there will be no change in fare for the other 6 passengers.

The story of Red Arrow fares over the years is set forth in the box below. Please read it carefully in the light of your personal experience with rising costs . . . and we will appreciate your cooperation.

THE YEAR BY YEAR STORY OF FARES
1927—Base fare 10¢ per zone and everyone paid it.
1932—Discounts were voluntarily granted, average fare dropped to .0915.
1947—Same discounts in effect, average fare dropped to .0845.
NOW PROPOSED—Same 10¢ base fare with discounts for children.
SCHOOL CHILDREN
1927—Base fare 10¢ per zone with no discounts.
1932—Discount of 50% voluntarily granted, bringing fare to 5¢.
1947—Children still carried at half fare, or 5¢.
NOW PROPOSED—Same 50% discount on school tickets but discontinuance of special transfers at 69th Street Terminal. Regular transfers still granted. Kiddies under twelve, not using school rates, may ride at a 25% discount.
NOTE: The discounts above mentioned include interchange tickets between Red Arrow Lines and Philadelphia & Western Railroad. A change by Red Arrow would necessitate Philadelphia & Western also discontinuing interchange tickets.

Makes Traffic Study

(Continued from page one) (3) Sprout road between Baltimore Pike and State road will be closed until bad weather begins, approximately three weeks from now. After that it will be open at least until March. At that time, if steel deliveries are made on time, the road will be closed again while construction is completed.

The Special Highway Committee was appointed by Council President George M. Ewing, to study the traffic problem on Route 320 and to find a solution for it. The committee consists of six citizens representing residents, college, and council. Their assignment is divided into two objectives, namely the immediate problem of traffic control on Route 320 and the long-term question of the future disposal of the same problem.

The committee expects to report its recommendations for traffic control signals to council during the next few months. The long-term problem involves many parties and their diverse interests so that progress is necessarily slower. Reports of progress will be made when one or more feasible solutions are defined.

Plans Christmas Party
The second fall meeting of the Swarthmore Junior Music Club was held at the home of William Potts, of Yale avenue. New members and guests were welcomed by the club.

Harold Ogram, president, conducted the business meeting. He announced the appointment of Priscilla Rogers as the new permanent program chairman. The club voted to have a carolling party on Thursday, December 23, the meeting place to be announced later. The president then turned the meeting over to the program chairman, Priscilla Rogers.

David Spencer played a violin solo "Masurka" by Mlynarski, accompanied by Mrs. Morris Potts. He was followed by Carol Ann Mosteller who played a Haydn piano sonata. Robert Keighton then played his own piano composition "Simplicity" and "Consolation" by Liszt. Fourth on the program was Harold Ogram, who, accompanied by Mrs. Potts, played "Valse Venite" as a saxophone solo. Carol Ann Mosteller returned to give an exhibition of baton twirling, with music supplied by Mrs. Potts and Elizabeth Johnson, club adviser. Barbara Shipherd first played "Somewhere on the Painted Desert" and then accompanied for the group singing which preceded and followed the refreshments.

MOORE TO SPEAK TODAY
Ben T. Moore will speak this afternoon at 2:30, at the Whittier House on "The Progress of the Marshall Plan." This meeting is sponsored by the League of Women Voters of Swarthmore in conjunction with the Women's International League for Peace and Freedom. Newly registered voters have been invited.

Mr. Moore is well qualified to give first hand information about the Marshall Plan. He now works in the Office of the Coordination of the State Department and the Economic Recovery Program, and has attended several of the European Economic conferences in Paris. He will soon leave for Europe again.

Mr. Moore graduated with highest honors in the Swarthmore College, Class of 1934. He went on to Columbia for graduate work, and began his government service in the Munitions Investigating Committee. He has been in the Research Department of the War Production Board. After the war he was put in charge of Korean Affairs in the State Department.

equaled the varsity's all-victorious record.

The main program in the auditorium will be open to all and a big turnout of Swarthmore people is expected. The 1948 high school team did something that had never been done before in the borough's history: It gave Swarthmore two unbeaten and untied season records in a row. With the loss of so many of last year's seasoned players the outlook for the 1948 squad was considered only "problematical" at the season's Robinson describes them: "They start. But, as head coach Millard were a willing and teachable bunch of boys, with as fine a spirit as a coach could ask for."

CLUB CHRISTMAS PROGRAM TUES.

Chorus To Sing Group Of Nutcracker Selections

The Woman's Club will hold its Christmas program next Tuesday at 2 p.m., under the leadership of Mrs. Stoyan Russell, the chorus will sing selections from "King Nutcracker" based on Tchaikowski's "Nutcracker Suite." It will Marie Louise Forsythe who will give several numbers of the fantasia.

The chorus accompanied by Mrs. A. L. Ventner consists of Alice Mariot and Mesdames Lloyd E. Kaufman, J. Leslie Ellis, W. W. Turner, Robert West, A. V. Orr, J. B. Danver, Owen Gay, Gordon C. Meador, A. M. Chambers, J. W. Parson, E. B. Hollis and C. W. Cross.

The welfare committee plans to spread cheer to boys between the ages of six and sixteen who otherwise would receive no presents, with packages consisting of half pound of candy, a pair of gloves or mittens, a game and an airplane model. Members may give any of the above articles, and it is suggested that a good way is to join with a friend in making up a package. Glove size should be marked on the outside. The packages are to be brought to the club on December 14.

The luncheon for new members under the chairmanship of Mrs. Percy Gilbert was a great success. Following the luncheon there was an excellent program. Mrs. Robert West of Clifton sang three songs: "The Slave Song" by Del Rigo, "Virgin Lullaby" by Reger, and "Gesu Bambino" by Yon. Her fine rendition gave everyone the spirit of Christmas.

Then Mrs. George Furnell, of Collingswood, N. J., magician amused and puzzled her audience with her jolly manner and her bag of tricks.

Club members are asked to save Monday, December 20, at 10 a.m., for making small wreaths to send to the wards of the Philadelphia General Hospital, and to bring greens, string, small loaves, artificial or natural berries and ribbon, also a sandwich. Coffee and a dessert will be served.

DR. SWOPE TO ADDRESS H.S.

Noted Educator To Be Heard On 14th

Dr. Swope, nationally known lecturer, educator and traveler is considered an authority on educational matters particularly applicable to parents of elementary school children. The title of his talk will be "Unfinished Business."

Prior to the meeting coffee and dessert will be served at 7:30 in the gymnasium. The title of his talk will be "Unfinished Business."

Mr. and Mrs. Russell Heath of Cedar Lane entertained at a buffet supper on Saturday evening.

Call Santa Soon

Santa has once again persuaded The Swarthmorean to act as his secretary and list all local boys and girls who wish him to visit them "all sung in their beds" on Christmas Eve.

This will be the sixty-first year that Santa, by a very special arrangement, has made certain that every Swarthmore child who wishes to see him in person when he makes his Christmas Eve gift distributions may do so. It is fortunate that children grow up each year to make room for newcomers to his list. Because they do grow and their families do move, a fresh list is made each Christmas.

Do you want to see him? Then here is what you must do: Ask one of your parents to call Swarthmore 1936 before Wednesday, December 23, and give your name, age, and address for Santa's list. Then, on Christmas Eve, remind them to leave the porch light on to help Santa find your house quickly.

"They'll find it almost as exciting and dream-come-true as you do when the ring of his sleigh bells sound on the night and his hearty visit winds up with his jolly cry: "Merry Christmas to All, and to All a Goodnight."

Call him soon, wont you?

LOCAL CITIZENS HONOR TEAM

The Swarthmore Citizens Athletic Committee recognized its sons and neighbors, the members of the high school football squads, in a banquet and after-dinner program Saturday evening, December 4, at the high school. At the dinner for the athletes, parents and guests, special certificates of commendation were awarded by Varsity Coach Millard Robinson to a number of outstanding collegiate gridgers of this area.

The program, held in the high school auditorium, featured as guest speaker, Harvey Harman, head football coach at Rutgers University and president of the National Collegiate Football Coaches' Association.

The Master of Ceremonies, Dr. John Mitchell, introduced speakers Harman, Coach Robinson, who awarded certificates to Varsity letterwinners; Assistant Coach Hofmann who honored his Junior Varsity aggregation and the "B" squad, Junior High School football mentor William Ruse, and Russell Snyder coach of the perennially undefeated Junior High Lightweight Team.

CAROLS AT COLLEGE

A community Christmas vesper service will be held Sunday, December 13, in Clothier Memorial at Swarthmore College. The college chorus will lead the audience in familiar Yuletide carols and render a few selections of its own. The program will last until 8 o'clock, and will be followed at 8:15 by an address by Reinhold Niebuhr of Union Theological Seminary.

Library Board Asks Tax Increase Of 1-4 Mill

Harold Ogram, treasurer of the Swarthmore Library Board, appeared before Borough Council on Monday evening accompanied by Charles B. Shaw, member of the Board of Directors, and requested the Council to increase the Library tax to 1 1/4 mills, making an increase of 1/4 mill. This is necessitated by increased operating expenses.

Council instructed the solicitor, Clarence Myers, to draw an ordinance allowing the Council to contribute to the Recreation Association.

On recommendation of the Highway Commission bids are to be requested for repairing a bad drainage condition at Dickinson avenue and Drexel road.

The Borough surveyor was asked to make a survey of Swarthmore avenue to determine the location of sidewalks on the west side of the street.

An increase of 7 1/2 per cent was granted to all policemen, radio operators, and highway workers.

Bids will be requested for a new police car.

The Council is asking the Philadelphia Electric Company to make a survey of the street lighting conditions of the Borough.

The Council requests that the College again blow a 6 o'clock whistle.

The police department requested that all citizens on leaving the Borough, call or write the police department stating when their houses will be unoccupied; when they are leaving; how long they will be absent, and where they can be reached.

The crowded parking condition around Penn State Center was discussed and steps are to be taken to remedy this situation.

Mr. and Mrs. Earle P. Yerkes of Princeton avenue entertained at a dinner party last week.

CLUB GIVES VAN DRUTEN SHOW

"Voice Of The Turtle" Opens Tonight At Fairview Road

John van Druten's comedy, "The Voice of the Turtle," opens tonight at the Players Club for the first performance of its eight-night run. Ably directed by Ned Pyle, this popular stage and screen show, available to amateur groups for its first season, is a light and amusing play with the naive Sally Middleton taking the edge.

Playing this leading lady is Libby Garret Hayes, well-known to Swarthmoreans for her past performances at the club, with Barbara B. Kent as Sally's siren friend, Olive Lashbrook. Playing "The" man on the stage, Bill Paige, is Forrest Compton, a senior at Swarthmore College who recently appeared on the Little Theatre stage in "Winterset."

The scene is laid in New York City, and the Players Club stage, a setting including everything from running water, a refrigerator, and a stove that really works to the waiting list of club members who have hopefully offered to rent it, is a novel apartment with all three rooms in full view of the audience.

Helping to make this set possible are: Stage managers Roy Snape and C. W. Lukens, with George Jarden and Lewis Good-enough as electricians, and Marcella Harvey and Emma Pyle as prompters. Patty Campbell, a lengthy prop list in hand, and her assistants, Eleanor Rauber, Anne Mabbott, Elaine Lynch and Elise Remont, have managed to whip up the bedspreads, curtains and covers and props innumerable which help to make the set as "saucy" and "luxury" as van Druten's comedy.

Junior Assemblies Meet Saturday

The Seventh, Ninth and Tenth grades of the Junior Assemblies will hold their dancing classes on Saturday evening, December 11: The Seventh Grade will meet at 6 o'clock, with Mr. and Mrs. Charles Macchal, and Mr. and Mrs. John R. Bates as chaperones.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Bevan, Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Rogers, and Mrs. Herman Wittmeyer will chaperone the Ninth Grade group which meets at 7:30.

At 9:30 the Tenth Grade convenes with Dr. and Mrs. F. W. Luehring and Dr. and Mrs. Seymour W. Kletzien acting as chaperones for the class.

Mr. and Mrs. William Rodman McHenry, who are the Vice-chairmen of the Junior Assemblies, will be in charge of the evening's festivities.

The committee wishes to emphasize again the matter of maintaining a reasonably formal atmosphere in both the Junior and Senior Assemblies. The approved dress for boys, as stated in the letter sent out to all the parents earlier this season, is plain or tuxen suit, white shirt, and tie. The consensus of opinion is that anything else is not in keeping with the formal dress of the girls, and the spirit and general purpose of the Assemblies.

LOSE SOMETHING?

In a special box under the counter in The Swarthmore office reposes a box with an ever-increasing accumulation of articles which must be being missed by their owners.

Turned in to the office by folks who have found them up on the street is a prize collection of keys on every type holder, change purses, jewelry. There are glasses with gold rims, pink plastic rims and tortoise shell rims.

Perhaps the one that seems most forlorn is the lady's lone black Cuban-heeled oxford who years for its mate and wonders how madame is faring on one foot these days.

A ring with a pretty blue stone, an initialed locket containing photos of two pet dogs, a pin made of initials MHP, and a very fancy pipe are other articles which certainly shouldn't be left unclaimed. Some of these articles have been advertised in the lost ads in this paper by the folks who turned them in. Perhaps the person who lost them (especially the glasses) did not see the ad. At any rate, if you've lost anything recently (or even not recently) do call Swarthmore 0900—maybe we have it!

Oh, Tannenbaum!
A gay innovation in the borough's Christmas decoration this year is the appearance of medium-sized trees trimmed with varicolored lights and placed symmetrically along the streets in the business section.

This is part of the annual Christmas program sponsored by the Swarthmore Business Association and is being provided through contributions from the individual business owners.

November Police Records
During the past month Borough police have arrested nine offenders who were fined for motor violations and 47 who parked illegally. The former were out-of-towners who were picked up for speeding, stop sign violation and improper passing. Those who paid one dollar fines in the latter category were homefolk who parked too long or in the wrong places. This was an average month.

In addition local police files record two arrests for hold-up and robbery (the Maschal case) awaiting trial at next term of court in Media, and one arrest, conviction and fine for drunk and disorderly conduct during the month of November.

Gives Vocational Talk
"There is opportunity unlimited in the teaching profession now," Hanna Kirk Mathews, popular English teacher of Swarthmore High School, told a student assembly at George School last week.

Second speaker in a new vocational guidance series, Mrs. Mathews, a George School graduate herself, revealed that thousands of new teachers are needed both in this state and in this country. "And salary prospects have never been so good," she added, after elaborating on the "extra satisfactions a teacher gets which cannot be measured in cash terms."

The veteran Swarthmore High teacher, who has been there more than 20 years, related her own experiences in the profession and gave some advice to the high school age listeners about getting into teaching. More than 400 heard her.

Rare Volumes Given College Library

The Swarthmore Library has recently been presented with a collection of rare, beautifully bound volumes issued by famous late-19th-century English private presses, it was announced today by Charles B. Shaw, librarian. The gift of Elizabeth Griscom Marot, a former Swarthmore resident now living in West Chester, the books are worth hundreds of dollars.

Most important item in the collection is the five-volume, vellum-bound edition of the Doves Bible, issued 1808-1805. This was the major production of the Doves Press, founded by T. Cobden-Sanderson. Only 500 copies of this beautifully printed Bible exist.

A single leaf from Chaucer's "Canterbury Tales", chief work of the Kelmscott Press, was also presented. Other important acquisitions include first editions of Kipling, and a Kelmscott Press edition of "Reynard, the Foxe", originally printed by William Caxton, the first English printer.

Miss Marot, now in her eighties, went to England as a young woman to learn the art of bookbinding at the Doves Press. She has included in her gift a first edition of Kipling's "Phantom" Rickshaw", and five essays by William Morris which she herself bound with beautifully tooled leather.

Miss Marot was the library's guest at tea last week. The collection is now on display in the library show cases and will be there until today.

THESE MEN ARE NEIGHBORS OF YOURS

Their Cost of Living Has Gone Up, Too

No use telling you what has happened to the cost of living, but if you're interested in figures they appear to the right in this ad.

It's a big increase and it takes a lot more money to keep a family going nowadays.

In the case of our own employees, Red Arrow realizes what they are up against. Already wages have been boosted—for bus and car operators, the increase has been more than double. Still the cost of living continues to soar. Therefore, after a period of negotiations, contracts effective January 1st, 1949, have been signed providing for a further increase of 10¢ per hour and other benefits. All this takes money, much money. On the other hand the cost of operating Red Arrow Lines has more than doubled. Everything we buy, everything we do costs more.

Yet, the average fare paid to Red Arrow Lines is less than in 1928. Yes, actually, less than twenty years ago.

Red Arrow Lines are spending and working for improved service—almost 60% of our motor vehicles are new since V-J Day and new street cars are coming. Also, we have "held the line" on fares as long as possible, but fast-mounting costs make it necessary to seek some adjustment. The whole fare situation is plainly told in the box on the right.

WHAT'S HAPPENED TO THE COST OF LIVING

FOOD up 127.7%	CLOTHING up 96.1%
NEW HOMES up 102.6%	HOME FURNISHINGS up 93.4%

WHAT'S HAPPENED TO RED ARROW'S COSTS

THIS STREET CAR COST US $18,400 in 1932

THIS STREET CAR COST US $45,000 in 1948

Yet more than $2,000,000 will have been spent by Red Arrow Lines between V-J Day and this coming winter to provide better service.

WHAT'S HAPPENED TO RED ARROW FARES

1927—Base fare 10¢ per zone and everyone paid it.

1932—Discounts were voluntarily granted, average fare dropped to .0915.

1947—Some discounts in effect, average fare dropped to .0845.

NOW PROPOSED—Some 10¢ base fare with discounts for children.

SCHOOL CHILDREN

1927—Base fare 10¢ per zone with no discounts.

1932—Discount of 50% voluntarily granted, bringing fare to 5¢.

1947—Children still carried at half fare, or 5¢.

NOW PROPOSED—Some 50% discount on school tickets but discontinuance of special transfers at 69th Street Terminal. Regular transfers still granted. Kiddies under twelve, not using school rates, may ride at a 25% discount.

NOTE: The discounts above mentioned include interchange tickets between Red Arrow Lines and Philadelphia & Western Railroad. A change by Red Arrow would necessitate Philadelphia & Western also discontinuing interchange tickets.

RED ARROW LINES

ATTEND LAUNCHING

Draft Law Clarified

Personal interviews with young men in this area have convinced the local recruiting officer of the U. S. Army and U. S. Air Force Recruiting Service that a great many 18-year-old applicants do not choose the one year enlistment because they believe that after their one year training period is completed they will be eligible again for service under the draft.

This incorrect impression was clarified when it was stated that the 18-year-old youth can fully satisfy his obligation under the Selective Service Act of 1948, by enlisting for a one year training period. Men who enlist in this category must follow up their enlistment with three to six additional years of service in a reserve component.

The applicant who is accepted for this one year training is enlisted into the Army of the United States Unassigned, and although he receives the same training as a longer term enlistee in the regular Army, he cannot be sent overseas. It is no longer necessary for an applicant to apply more than once for the one year enlistment as his original application will be processed within seven days. Even though the applicant may reach his nineteenth birthday prior to being called for processing he is still eligible for this enlistment as long as his application was accepted at the recruiting station prior to his reaching his nineteenth birthday.

The local recruiting station in the Chester Post Office is open Monday through Saturday from 8 a. m. to 5 p. m., during which time further information on the one year enlistment can be obtained.

Suburban Line Asks For Fare Raise

With its average basic fares 13 per cent lower now than they were 20 years ago, the Philadelphia Suburban Transportation Company has been compelled by skyrocketing material, costs and steadily rising wages to appeal to the Public Utility Commission for relief, Merritt H. Taylor, president of the company announced.

"To partially compensate for the increase in wages and for other items which go into rendering our service, we are filing tariffs providing for a ten-cent cash fare in each zone and, except for children, the discontinuance of discount tickets, including interchanges with Philadelphia and Western, Mr. Taylor said.

Commenting on the wage increases which the company has made, Mr. Taylor said, "Our bus and car operators were paid 60 cents an hour in 1928 whereas, during negotiations last year, a new rate of $1.25 an hour was established to help them meet the soaring cost of living. And more recently, after a period of negotiations, contracts have been signed providing for a further increase effective January 1, 1949.

"Meanwhile our operating expenses have soared 134 per cent during this same period. For example, since 1933, brake shoes have gone up from $42 to $120 a ton, gasoline 10 1/2 to 17 1/2 cents and motor oil 31 to 64 cents a gallon.

"At the same time we have underway, with much of it already completed, a post-war improvement program on all of our lines totaling $2,000,000.

"In spite of the fact that the railroads and the PTC have twice raised their rate of fare," Mr. Taylor said, "the Philadelphia Suburban Transportation Company has been extremely reluctant to do so. Our present rates are the minimum rates which were voluntarily established during the low period of the depression and have not up to this time been increased.

"All that the Philadelphia Suburban Transportation Company is asking is that it be allowed to earn a reasonable rate to give the people the kind of service they want."

BAND LAUDED ON PERFORMANCE

The Swarthmore High School band was highly praised in a report recently received from the officials of the Cultural Olympics of the University of Pennsylvania. The band appeared along with many other bands at the playing demonstration on the River Field near Franklin Field early in November.

Especially noteworthy were the comments on the general effect of the band's appearance. The report stated in part: "Excellent. A fine program played in a musicianly manner. Congratulations to a band that plays musically on the field outstanding."

The detailed report states that the rhythm was very good, steady, and no tendency to rush. The interpretation was excellent; the intonation, "very commendable—especially good in Navy hymn." The tone was good quality, color, and control.

The report further continues to commend the band on its work in the special drill. It speaks of the band appearance as being "an impressive drill; left flanks after USA good; placement of sousaphones in 'anchor' excellent—all instruments ruffled well placed."

The band suffered a bit in its rating on uniforms, which now have been in service for ten years and are showing signs of wear and did not appear as bright and flashing as the new uniforms of such bands as the Coatesville band, Phoenixville band and others. On uniforms the rating was average.

The school band has had a busy fall season of outdoor work under its leader Robert M. Holm and is now beginning rehearsals for its appearance as a concert band in the early spring. With its appearance at several public functions in the community, including the Halloween Parade, the parents generally feel that the band is a real community asset, an organization that should be encouraged and supported in every way.

To Hostess Wives Program

Mrs. Robert C. Disque of Strath Haven avenue is chairman for the all-day program for the wives of the American Society for Engineering Education conferees meeting at Drexel Institute tomorrow. She will be assisted by Mrs. E. O. Lange of Baltimore pike.

GIRL SCOUT

The Flyp Brownies from Rutgers and College avenue schools have been literally busy as bees since their troop formed in October. With the help of their leader, Mrs. Donald P. Jones, and assistants, Mrs. LeRoy Peterson and Mrs. Jack McWilliams, the girls hope to be able to pass all Tenderfoot requirements in time to be invested before the new year. It will be then that they receive the Girl Scout pin.

At the present time the Flyups are designing and making their own Christmas cards. They will celebrate Christmas together at a special party planned for December 20.

Twenty fathers were present as guests of their daughters at a Thanksgiving dinner in November given in the Girl Scout house. The entire meal was prepared by the girls themselves under the guidance of four mothers who donated their kitchens and services on the day of the dinner. The scouts and their leaders wish to thank Mrs. Robert Abbe, Mrs. Harry W. Crowther, Mrs. Howard E. Shearer, and Mrs. A. Sydney Johnson, Jr., for their kind help.

Following the dinner the fathers joined in singing and games led by Susan Braun and her patrol, the "Parrots." Beth Jones and her "Owls" were responsible for the dessert and table decorations which were carried out in the Thanksgiving theme. Bonnie Moxey's "Cracker" patrol prepared the salad and Beverly Crowther's "Cardinals" cooked the main course.

The troop and its leaders wish to express their thanks and appreciation to all the mothers and to the committee which recently sponsored a benefit bridge in behalf of the troop. Mrs. B. Harrar, Jr., chairman of the committee, was aided by Mrs. Russell Phillips, Mrs. David Wisdom, Mrs. Thomas Hopper and Mrs. Newulier.

ther, Wendy Ford, Mary Lou Friend, Ann Hay, Leigh Hollis, Joan Harrar, Joan Hemenway, Lannie Hopper, Louise Johnson, Beth Jones, Carol Lincoln, Bonnie Moxey, Fatsy McGonigle, Nancy Newulier, Mary Phillips, Sally Reaser, Nancy Reese, Joanne Shearer, Mimi Wisdom and Anne Driehaus.

BETTER RUGS... PAULSON'S never buy rugs by the "bundle" ... never have undetectable rugs to "clear out." All Orientals are individually selected for beauty, for wear, for value. We give a little more; we take more pains; we display better rugs.

BETTER VALUE... PAULSON'S have achieved an unusually favorable turnover rate, enabling us to set our prices lower than is ordinarily considered good business practice. This is a reflection again of careful buying. Also, the word seems to be getting around.

BETTER SERVICE... You deal with principals at PAULSON'S. Whether it be Paul M. Paulson, founder, or Paul K. Paulson, Manager, the rugs are displayed by ones who know Orientals, and who are genuinely interested in serving you well... so that the word may continue to get around.

PLAYERS CLUB IN SMART COMEDY

Set And Cast Star
In Van Druhen Play

"Voice of the Turtle," the Ned Pyle directed John van Druhen play which continues at the Players Club tonight and tomorrow, is as attractively staged as any in a long series of creditable sets by this club.

The illusion of transition and space is well maintained by the insight into three rooms; the satisfaction of variety is assured by the delightful and colorful decorating effects (complete even to running water in the kitchen). Roy Snape and C. W. Lukens directed the staging with the invaluable aid of Ernest and Virginia Federoff, Walter Rauber and David Bingham.

Elizabeth Garret Hayes, Barbara B. Kent, and Forrest Compton make up the cast, one of the smallest in Players Club history, and one which earns an accolade for readying a performance in one third the usual time. So small a cast places a heavy burden on an amateur club. Lines are long, business has less chance for variety, pacing is harder to maintain. Added is the fact that Voice of the Turtle, with all its established charm, holds down to a lot of talk, sophisticated and simple, about love.

Mrs. Hayes handles the role of Sally Middleton ably, emphasizing her engaging naivete and candor. She devotes herself to the role with such a charge of energy as to accelerate any production, and certainly a week-end Mr. Compton, a senior at Swarthmore College who has had experience in summer stock, plays Bill with a quiet ease and gentleness which is quite adequate to the stature of the role, and gives it genuine appeal and force.

Miss Kent as Olive Lashbrook, actress a-prowl, develops a true sense of the ludicrous and the sardonic into a good character performance. Briefer than the other roles, that of the amorous, greedy, thwarted Lashbrook takes some doing to set up the foil against which youth and Spring and love stand fresh and virtuous.

"Voice of the Turtle" is commended for its plentiful chuckles, its superior staging, its interesting cast.

Virginia Allan Honored

Virginia Allen, coach of the Swarthmore High School girls' sports and teacher of health and physical education, was honored at the 27th Annual B a n q u e t of the Pennsylvania State Association for Health, Physical Education and Recreation, meeting in Philadelphia last week. She was given a station as contributing outstandingly to the progress of health and physical education in the schools of Pennsylvania.

Martha Gable of the Philadelphia Board of Education in making the award said: "Miss Allen has contributed much to athletics both as a player and a coach. She is a former All-American lacrosse player and was a U. S. reserve in hockey."

In the last 20 years none of Miss Allen's lacrosse teams have been beaten in interscholastic competition. Her players and her former students are very proud of this outstanding recognition which has come to Miss Allen.

MOTHERS HOLD YULETIDE PARTY

Children To Join In Carols, Enjoy
Santa

Santa Claus will be on hand to bestow gifts at the Mother's Club Christmas party which will be held in the Woman's Club Wednesday afternoon, December 23, at 3:30 p. m. Mothers and children will gather to sing carols, to watch a magician and to give as well as to receive presents.

Each child has been requested to bring 25 cents wrapped as a Christmas gift. The money will be used by the Welfare Committee of the Mother's Club to provide gifts for a needy family in the vicinity. Under the direction of co-chairmen Mrs. D. Mace Gowling and Mrs. William McClarin, Jr., a committee is at work planning genuine Christmas fun for both children and mothers in the club's initial Yuletide party.

Mrs. Clair Wilcox addressed the regular meeting of the Mother's Club on Thursday evening, December 9, in the Woman's Club. Speaking of "Children and Art," Mrs. Wilcox stressed the therapeutic qualities of arts and crafts and urged that the child be offered media of expression which would allow him to create freely. She suggested clay and poster paints with large brushes as excellent materials for the preschool child.

Mrs. Wilcox told mothers to cultivate appreciation of children's artistic efforts, so that they may win the confidence and understanding of their children. Her remarks were illustrated by a display.

Santa
Soon

For the deadline is 5 p. m., Wednesday, December 22, and already Santa is shoeing his reindeer, polishing his sleigh bells and sharpening the runners in preparation for his annual odyssey to the borough homes in Swarthmore.

Santa's personal phone, Swarthmore 1936, has been ringing merrily and busily for several days now, and Mrs. Claus herself, with occasional help from a stray elf or two, has been answering calls from parents and hopeful children asking Santa to include their home on his ever-lengthening list.

Santa grieves that he has to set a deadline at all, but as insurance against his getting rushed and flustered, and so that he can wind up the thousand and one last-minute items that require his own particular attention, he has found it necessary to call Wednesday at five as the last possible time.

NUTCRACKER AT WOMEN'S CLUB

To Make Wreaths
For Hospital
Monday

The Woman's Clubhouse wore a festive look on Tuesday afternoon when the Club Chorus under the direction of Mrs. Stoyan Russell presented "King Nutcracker," a fantasy for chorus and ballet based on Tchaikovsky's "Nutcracker Suite." The pupils of Marie Louise Forsythe performed the ballet.

Those taking part in the ballet were Katie Lyons as Marie Silberhaus, Charlotte Brodhead as the animated nutcracker, Penny Morrow and Polly Emery as the Arabian dolls, Elizabeth Ann Forsythe as the Russian girl, Gail Iredeale as the Chinese doll, and Elizabeth Boyle the candy fairy. Nancy Baker, Molly Banks, Barbara Cabots, Penny Morrow, Polly Emery, Elizabeth Ann Forsythe portrayed the woodland flowers with Doris Lees as the solo flower. Greens were massed across the entire backdrop of the stage, interspersed with colorful Christmas ornaments. To the left of the stage, and forming part of the setting for the ballet, was a Christmas tree with old-fashioned trimmings of cranberries and popcorn.

Mrs. R. L. Wilkinson and Mrs. A. B. Reavis poured and Mrs. Charles G. Thatcher and Mrs. John S. Vetter were co-hostesses at the tea which followed carol singing by the full assemblage. Many gifts were collected for the boys at Glen Mills School who will not receive presents from home.

Under the auspices of the Garden Section, the club members are asked to help make wreaths for the wards at Philadelphia General Hospital at 10 a. m., next Monday, December 20. Members are expected to come to the clubhouse and bring evergreens, ribbons, jar rubbers, small pine cones, and artificial or natural berries. They should also bring a sandwich, as coffee and dessert will be served. Mrs. D. Reed Geer is chairman.

EIGHT QUALIFY FOR ORCHESTRA

Swarthmore High School will be well represented in the District Orchestra Festival to be held in Clothier Memorial, January 22. Eight local musicians qualified for membership in the group of over 100 members at the competitive tryouts held at the high school last Saturday.

David Spencer was selected as concertmaster, and Russell Snyder, viola; Bill Potts, clarinet, and Jerome Goodman, cello, were chosen to head their respective sections. Eric Sharpless, trombone; Ruth Garrett, violin; Harold Ogram, oboe, and John Steinfeld, double bass, also placed and will participate with the festival group. Over 20 schools in a three-county area sent candidates to compete. A group of interested orchestra parents met at the home of Steven Spencer of Ogden avenue for the purpose of setting up plans for the forthcoming festival. Tickets will be placed on sale immediately after the holidays. Mrs. Jack Thompson, chairman of the Banquet Committee reported and plans were set up to fete the festival orchestra with a dinner in the high school cafeteria immediately preceding the concert.

NUTCRACKER AT WOMEN'S CLUB

To Make Wreaths For Hospital Monday

The Woman's Clubhouse was a festive look on Tuesday afternoon when the Club Chorus under the direction of Mrs. Stoyan Russell presented "King Nutcracker," a fantasy for chorus and ballet based on Tchaikovsky's "Nutcracker Suite."

Those taking part in the ballet were Katie Lyons as Mary Silberhaus, Charlotte Brodhead as the animated nutcracker, Penny Morrow and Polly Emery as the Arabian dolls, Elizabeth Ann Forsythe as the Russian doll, Gail Iredale as the Chinese doll, and Elizabeth Boyle the candy fairy.

Greens were massed across the entire backdrop of the stage, interspersed with colorful Christmas ornaments. To the left of the stage, and forming part of the setting for the ballet, was a Christmas tree with old-fashioned trimmings of cranberries and popcorn.

Under the auspices of the Garden Section, the club members are asked to help make wreaths for the wards at Philadelphia General Hospital at 10 a. m., next Monday, December 20. Members are expected to come to the clubhouse and bring evergreens, ribbons, jar rubbers, small pine cones, and artificial or natural berries. They should also bring a sandwich, as coffee and dessert will be served.

Mrs. D. Reed Geer is chairman.

Eric Sharpless, trombone; Ruth Garrett, violin; Harold Ogram, oboe, and John Steinfield, double bass, also placed and will participate with the festival group.

Over 20 schools in a three-county area sent candidates to compete. A group of interested orchestra parents met at the home of Steven Spencer of Ogden avenue for the purpose of setting up plans for the forthcoming festival. Tickets will be placed on sale immediately after the holidays.

WE'RE PAYING MORE FOR EVERYTHING Just as you are

Yet the Average Fare is Down 13% on Red Arrow Lines

Yes, the average fare on Red Arrow Lines—street cars or buses—is less than it was in 1928.

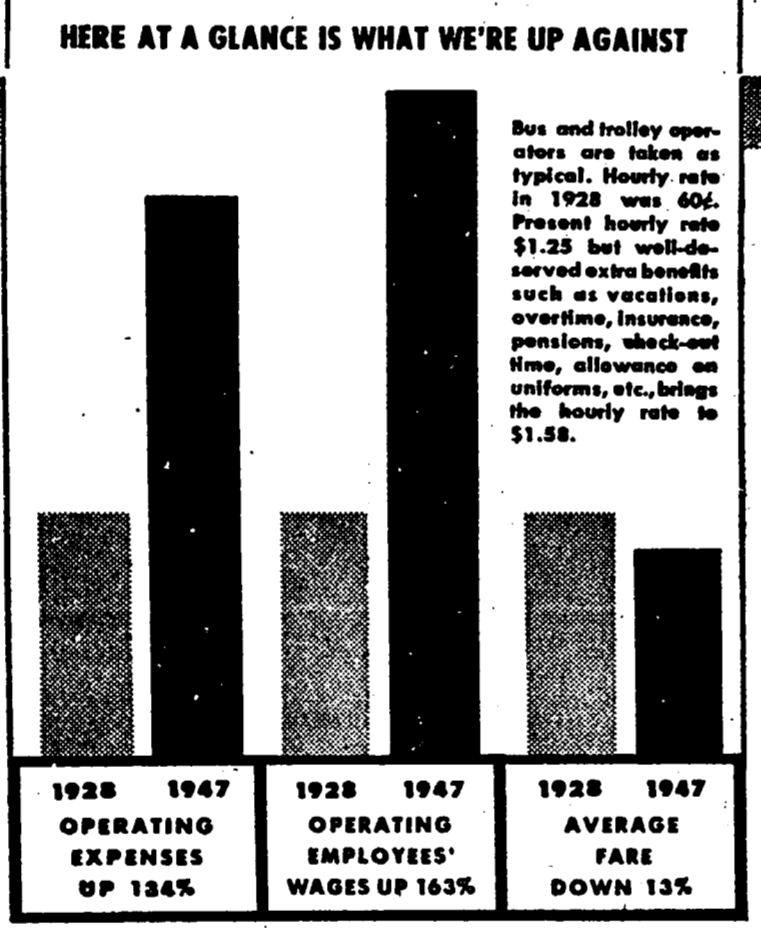

That's a big difference, especially in the face of skyrocketing costs for everything we buy, everything we do. Operating expenses today are more than double those of 1928 when we collected a straight 10¢ fare per zone.

Your neighbors at Red Arrow feel their main obligation is to the communities they serve. Efficient service is the first requirement and almost 60% of our motor equipment is new since V-J Day so our patrons can ride with safety and comfort. More than $2,000,000 is being spent to bring about these improvements and more are coming.

At the same time we have striven to "hold the line" on fares. But soaring costs now make some adjustment necessary. The complete story about fares is told in the box at the right. It involves a discontinuance of the discounts, except for children, from the 10¢ base fare voluntarily established by the Company in 1932.

Approximately four out of ten patrons now avail themselves of these discounts, which means fares will remain unchanged for the other six passengers.

HERE AT A GLANCE IS WHAT WE'RE UP AGAINST

Bus and trolley operators are taken as typical. Monthly rate in 1928 was 40¢. Present monthly rate $1.25 but well-served extra benefits such as vacations, overtime, insurance, pensions, sick-leave time, allowance on uniforms, etc. bring the monthly rate to $1.25.

THE YEAR BY YEAR STORY OF FARES

1927—Base fare 10¢ per zone and everyone paid it.

1932—Discounts were voluntarily granted, average fare dropped to .0915.

1947—Same discounts in effect, average fare dropped to .0845.

NOW PROPOSED—Same 10¢ base fare with discounts for children.

SCHOOL CHILDREN

1927—Base fare 10¢ per zone with no discounts.

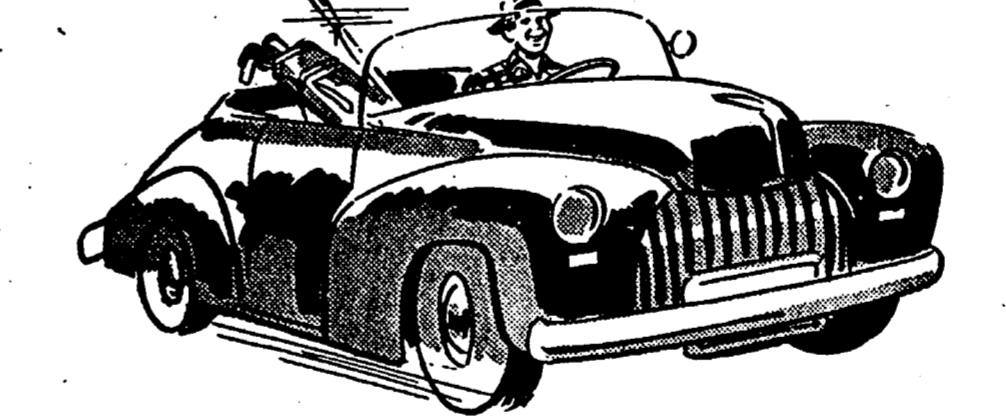

1932—Discount of 50% voluntarily granted, bringing fare to 5¢.

1947—Children still carried at half fare, or 5¢.

NOW PROPOSED—Some 50% discount on school tickets but discontinuance of special transfers at 69th Street Terminal. Regular transfers still granted. Kiddies under twelve, not using school rates may ride at a 25% discount.

NOTE: The discounts above mentioned include interchange tickets between Red Arrow Lines and Philadelphia & Western Railroad. A change by Red Arrow would necessitate Philadelphia & Western also discontinuing interchange tickets.

COMMUNITY SING AT 5 TONIGHT

Residents To Carol At Boro Hall Plaza
The annual Christmas Eve community carol sing will be led by a double brass quartet from the high school band this evening at 5 o'clock at Borough Hall Plaza.

WE CELEBRATE CHRISTMAS

Once again it is Christmas Eve. In our community, as elsewhere, there is the sense of breathless expectancy, of mounting suspense that plunges us into Christmas.

The Pageant of the Nativity presented with such reverent beauty of sight and sound last Sunday ushered in the Christmas-tide for our village on a note of awe and worship.

It is a wonderful, shining beauty that every twelve months lifts the hearts of the world, no matter how starved or greedy or greedy or indrawn they are, into a pouring out of friendliness.

"What can I give Him, poor as I am? If I were a shepherd, I would bring Him a lamb; If I were a wiseman, I would do my part, What I can I give Him, give my heart."

So we keep Christmas. The jolly little Christmas trees which have shone in the business section through sun, dark, sleet and snow to carry the Christmas greetings of local merchants—the bright colorful doorways aglow with lights to give the feel of friendliness to our streets—the Carol Sing this evening at five before our Borough Light-rejuvenated Hall (some times many and sometimes few families follow the choir boys' leading but over the years the community voices have swelled the world Hallelujah) are a part of it.

We hope that he knows, but then of course he must, how many of yesterday's children and even today's oldsters will find their Christmas merrier because they, too, listen to his "Merry Christmas to all" ring across the frosty air.

"Oh, Christmas is a jolly time When forests hang with snow, And other forests bend with toys, And lordly yule-logs glow, And Christmas is a solemn time Because, beneath the Star, The Holy Great Christmas Gift was given To all men, near and far."

Home From Hospital
Nancy Hoot who returned home Sunday after three months in the Taylor Hospital following an automobile accident, was entertained Wednesday noon by a ring of carolers, the Junior High Glee Club directed by Alice Craton.

Mr. and Mrs. Craton G. Pitner of Baltimore will be the guests of Mrs. Pitner's mother Mrs. P. L. Whitaker of Park avenue over the Christmas weekend.

Surviving besides her husband are a son, William T., of Wilmington, Del.; a daughter, Mrs. George P. Lloyd, of Joliet, Ill., a brother, Dr. William L. Schreiber, of Oak Lane; a sister, Miss Mae Schreiber, of West Philadelphia, and seven grandchildren.

Charles Jefferson Andrews, a resident of Dickinson avenue for 36 years died Monday following a stroke at the home of his son, LeRoy, in Upper Darby where he had been living since last spring.

When the Christmas peace bids evil cease On the holiest day of the year.

Grown folks, who seem to think they know so much but only occasionally prove their point, are often skeptical and claim that there is no sleigh and reindeer because they have never seen it. But the answer is simple. Deer and Reindeer, as every seasoned hunter knows, are incorrigibly shy of human haunts, and the moment Santa knocks on a door to bewilder a sleepy child with his presence, they make a dash for the roof and hide behind the chimney, dragging the sleigh with them; it is seldom that a disbelieving adult, looking for the musical.

The WELL at JAMESTOWN

Death, disease and the dangers of pioneer life took their toll of those hardy pioneers who founded the first permanent settlement of English speaking colonists in America at Jamestown, Virginia, in 1607.

By 1609, Jamestown had grown to a village of 50 or 60 houses, clustered around a village well, within a stockade. Prior to the digging of this well, the settlers drank the brackish water of the James river. Eventually the well was found to be in an unsanitary condition—no doubt due to its proximity to the huts. A new well was dug in 1611 but in 1617 this was also found to be polluted.

From 1607 to 1625 the colony lost more than 6,000 settlers out of a total of 7,289. Undoubtedly many of these brave men and women needlessly died from diseases caused by the lack of a plentiful supply of good water.

You, however, can always depend upon the water that we send you. It comes from clear, safe, country streams. Its purity is safeguarded, preserved and tested time and time again... 24 hours a day.

Discuss School Legislation

A general meeting of the Delaware County State Education Association was held at the Swarthmore High School on December 15, for the study of legislation now before the State Assembly affecting the schools.

Baker Thompson, principal of the high school, and member of the Legislative Committee, outlined the legislation proposed. Federal aid, revision of procedure in the selection of new teachers, tax equalization and reassessments as methods of raising funds to finance a broad program for general improvement in the Pennsylvania system were some of the items discussed.

RICHARD C. BECKETT
Richard C. Beckett, of Dover, Del., died Thursday following an automobile accident the previous Sunday.

He is survived by his wife, Sarah Sheppard Beckett, a graduate of Swarthmore College, class of 1915.

Junior High Glee Club Sings

Monday evening, December 21, found Rutgers School auditorium filled with festive holiday atmosphere. The Junior Girls Glee Club, under the direction of Alice E. Blodgett, entertained guests and Junior High Faculty in an evening of caroling and wassail from the wassail bowl.

Among the special carols sung by the Glee Club, were a Negro carol, "Rise Up Shepherd and Follow," the "Wassail Song," an English carol, "Lo, How a Rose E'er Blooming" and "Make We Merry." Patricia Teal, soprano, rendered the ever lovely "O Holy Night," by Adam, with the Glee Club as a background. Accompanist for the Glee Club singing was Maura Hopkins. General controlling was accompanied by Barbara Shipperd.

Students in charge of the different evening activities included Jeanne Tanguy, Christine Ford, Virginia Gehring and Judy Penneck.

TO THE PUBLIC

Philadelphia Transportation Company has filed new fare schedules to be effective January 21, 1949.

Rides which now cost 10¢ will cost 11½¢ token (3 for 35¢) or 13¢ cash. Rides which now cost 12½¢ token (2 for 25¢) will cost 13¢ cash. School fares and suburban zone fares will remain as at present. Transfer and exchange privileges will remain unchanged, except on that part of bus Route C between Olney and Snyder Terminals of Broad St. Subway.

This step has been taken because of the necessity for increased revenue to meet the higher costs of providing public transit service, as well as a fair return on the value of the property which makes that service possible.

Even with these new fares riders will receive more for their transit dollar than for the dollar spent on most other things. PTC present fares have risen an average of only 31% (under the new fares, about 49%) since before the war, while other cost-of-living items have averaged a much higher increase.

Only 3/4¢ left from each $1 of Revenue.

Chiefly as a result of these higher labor and material costs, less than 3/4 of a cent is left out of each dollar of revenue after the costs of providing service are met. (See chart.)

It can be seen that this margin is totally inadequate for further equipment modernization, service expansion, or for even a modest return to the 49,000 stockholders, most of them Philadelphians, whose money helped furnish the community's transit lines.

While increased riding resulting from high postwar business activity and additional revenue secured from prior fare increases have helped, these factors have not been enough to offset the great and continuing rise in operating expenses.

Good Service Must Continue

PTC has spent $22,800,000 since 1940 for 1506 new streetcars, buses and trackless trolleys—one of the biggest transit improvement programs in the United States. Further steps in this program soon will be necessary. These steps, however, must depend on a betterment of the Company's position.

We realize good local transit service is essential to workers and shoppers, to merchants and manufacturers, and to the general welfare of Philadelphia. The new fares are necessary to meet the higher costs of good service, to assure the progress that can come only from a financially sound company, and to give fair treatment to those who have invested their money to provide the transportation facilities that serve you every day.

In comparison with the rise in fares,

Food prices are up	108%
Clothing prices are up	96%
The average of all items in the cost-of-living index is up	74%

Operating Costs Are Up

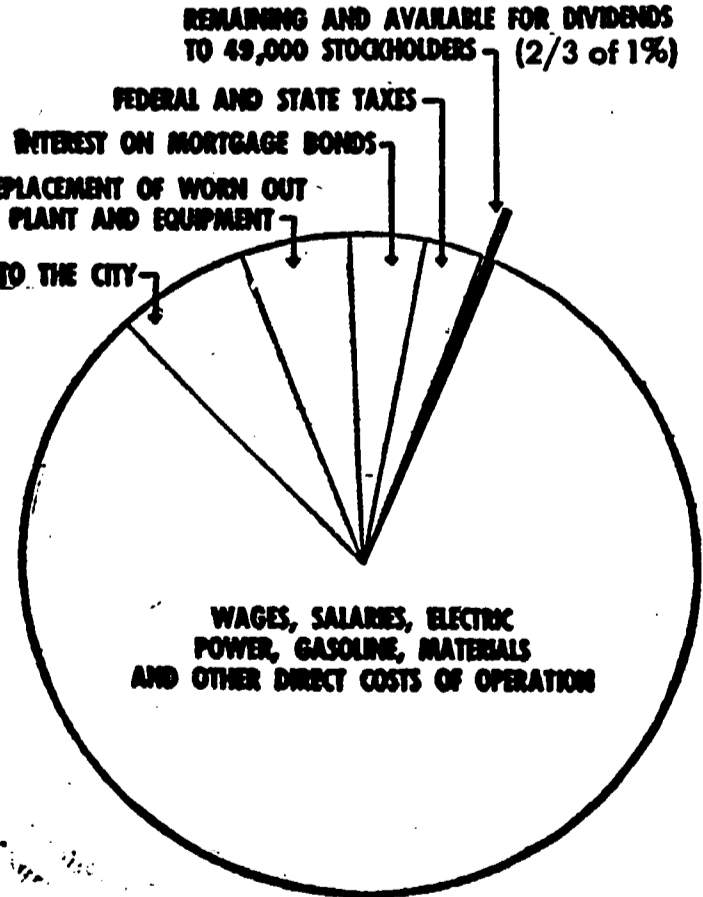

PTC wage costs, like those of all other businesses, have increased substantially, and now take over 61% of each dollar of revenue. Thousands of supply items and materials are needed to operate and maintain the system. Prices of these have risen sharply, many of the major items having gone up from 70% to 132%. For example:

Gasoline (before taxes) is up	93%
Steel rails are up	70%
Track ties are up	109%
Trolley wire is up	80%
Transfer ticket paper is up	132%

Streetcars have gone up from $16,800 to $28,500 each. Buses and trackless trolleys are up proportionately.

PTC also is faced with the necessity of undertaking a greater amount of maintenance work, to restore normal maintenance programs which necessarily have been curtailed.

WHERE YOUR FARE GOES

Some may believe that fares in Philadelphia are higher than in other large cities. The following table shows, however, that even with the proposed increase fares in Philadelphia will be in line with those in other large cities:

Baltimore	10c
Proposed new fare—	15c (2 for 25c)
Boston	10c
New rates call for a 16c fare for the majority of riders
Chicago	15c (elevated)
	13c (surface lines)
Cleveland	12c (3 for 35c)
Detroit	13c (4 for 50c)
New York	10c (subway)
	12c (combined subway-surface ride)
Pittsburgh	10c (rail)
	15c (8 for $1) on principal bus lines
Proposed new fares—	12c (rail)
	15c (principal bus lines)
St. Louis	10c
Proposed new fare—	12c (3 for 35c)
Washington	13c (3 for 35c)

HEALTH SOCIETY PLAYS SANTA

Anonymous Contributors Cheer Families, Shut-Ins

Santa Claus is not a fictional character. He lives right here in Swarthmore in the hearts of the residents as was proven to 12 families, 60 children and 35 "shut-ins."

The Board of Directors of the Community Health Society wishes to thank the clubs and individuals who contributed to the Christmas Fund of the nursing agency. A group of women working with Mrs. William Hetzel of Thayer road spent Wednesday morning packing gaily wrapped baskets of fruit for "shut-in" patients. The nurses will take either a plant or basket of fruit to their 35 patients who are chronically ill.

In addition to supplying Christmas Cheer for the "shut-ins" Swarthmore clubs also provided dinners and gifts for many families. The Swarthmore Cubs under the direction of William Lee of Swarthmore took care of two families; The Friendly Circle generously aided four families and gave $50 to the agency fund. The Swarthmore Presbyterian Church Primary Department helped one family and gave money to another. The Junior Woman's Club donated some attractively stuffed Christmas stockings which were distributed among the children of the four families helped by the Friendly Circle. The American Legion Auxiliary Unit 427 provided for two veterans' families and a cash donation. The Lansdowne Iron and Steel Company sent their annual generous contribution. Swarthmore High School J. J. Club helped one family and the Swarthmore Exchange Bell Telephone operators gave a Christmas dinner to a family. This year all families who were cleared help at Christmas were received through the Christmas Information Center at Media so that there was no duplication.

The Board feels the list of individual contributors would wish to remain anonymous. To all of the loyal generous friends the Society wishes to say, "Thank you and a Merry Christmas and Happy New Year."

Mr. and Mrs. Gordon A. Meador of Fairview road and Cornell avenue will entertain at a buffet supper Sunday night in honor of Mrs. Meador's brother-in-law and sister Mr. and Mrs. James J. Cassidy of Atlantic City.

Santa Change? Never!

evidence, thinks to glance up at the roof, much less peer behind the chimney, and no wonder he has never seen them!

But Santa, with a twinkle as broad as it is long (and his are VERY long which automatically makes them large), takes skepticism in his stride and warms his heart by the letters that come pouring into his study. Only the other day he was chuckling over some from his Swarthmore contingent. Most of them were from little-ish ones, and a letter that he liked particularly was from a child who hadn't REALLY learned to write yet.

With the opening of the last letter, Santa closed his desk and plunged into last-minute preparations for his Christmas eve journey. And whether it rains, snows or sleets, whether the ground is muddy or dry and crisp, Santa will be here with bells on. For the absence of snow has never yet turned Santa from his purpose. And although the crunch of runners on a gravel drive may disturb the feelings of some sensitive and practical-minded adults who worry about such things, Santa wouldn't leave his sleigh or his dear Donner, Blitzen and Co. behind for the world.

If a Swarthmorean called, Santa will be there sometime before dawn. And if adults are there to greet him, he'll probably come through the front door, so parents are asked to leave the porch light on; and children who are wise will leave a bit of moss and a lump of sugar or two by an open window, for his reindeer to crunch as they walk by the chimney for Santa's return.

'SNOW PLACE LIKE HOME

Boro Tries To Suit The Varied Taste

Snow or no, most folks agree Swarthmore is a very fine place to live. Here is ample space for winter's white mantle to alight and lie undisturbed along tree bough and lawn to delight the eye of the season's devotees and for the frolic of youngsters. Yet an efficient Borough highway department is out with the first flakes that fall, clearing sidewalks with its new tractor and streets with the big snow plow, so that those who prefer to mince their steps have a minimum of anxiety about loss of life and limb.

The new tractor, which was purchased by the borough last spring and shared by the school district for grass cutting during the summer, had its initiation in snow duty on December 19. A mishap to one of its tires put it out of the running before its job was completed but the College tractor which has served faithfully in former years, came to the rescue. As always trucks soon clear the excess whiteness.

Borough officials request that parked cars be kept off the streets during or immediately after future snowfalls, in order to facilitate the work of the snow removal squad.

Quartet to Broadcast

Several of the local high school musicians will participate in a broadcast this Sunday afternoon. These broadcasts originate directly from St. Andrew's Centenary Methodist Church at 45th and Chestnut streets, Philadelphia, and are under the direction of Rev. Herbert R. Howells.

LOCAL FAMILY IN GERMANY

G. Hurst Pauls Lived In Munich For Ten Months

From November 1947 to September 1948 the G. Hurst Pauls with their two daughters Joann and Patricia lived in the American zone in Munich where Mr. Paul was with the C.I.D. of the American Military government.

As the Pauls observed, the results of the bombing and even the rubble is not noticeable because the walls of the buildings are still standing; but the insides are almost completely demolished. Students attending the University of Munich, like Joann, had an extended vacation from Christmas to April because the rain and snow, dripping through the holes in the roof, formed ice on the stairs, making them impassable. Efforts are being made to repair the damages, and a person enrolling for a four year course in the university must first put in six months manual labor before he or she can begin studies and become an official student.

HECKMAN HOME TAKES 1ST PRIZE

Harvard Avenue Best Lighted Street This Year

The 1948 judges have examined the various holiday lighting effects on borough homes and awarded Dr. and Mrs. George B. Heckman first prize, the William E. Soden family second, and Dr. and Mrs. Henry Weiland third.

The Heckman home at 132 Park avenue, a Christmas card picture home even when unadorned, is enhanced by an outline of varicolored lights entwined in laurel around two doorways, facing on the street, and along the connecting roof overhang. The main doorway bears a wreath with a huge candy cane, and the lamp post at the entrance path is also entwined with lights and laurel.

The Sodens have achieved an outstanding holiday glow with a red electric candle within a red wreath in every window. They live at 305 College avenue, (second house from the Episcopal Church).

The entire front door of the Weiland residence at 400 South Chester road, corner of Westdale avenue, has assumed the guise of a large shiny red Santa with a lovely face and whiskers and clean, black boots. A spotlight shines on this central effect and a little evergreen at either side of the entrance walk points up the display.

Honorable mention was made of the following:
The large lighted tree on the lawn of William Craemer, 422 Harvard avenue; the Frank Bromley house at 750 Harvard avenue (opposite Strath Haven Inn) which has blue lights strung along the first floor rooflet; the Percival Armitage home at 314 Harvard avenue featuring blue candled wreaths in the windows, along the roof and on two trees banking the doorway; the Paul J. Carey house at 641 North Chester road with doorway and evergreen lighting; Elric S. Sprova's house at 105 Cornell avenue with groups of red lighted bells suspended along the doorway roof and "Merry Christmas" written in white on a large, red card upon a white door.

Borough Hall in its holiday dress of lights along the plaza roof and on the shrubbery also brought honorable mention from the judges in the annual contest which is sponsored by the Swarthmore Business Association and The Swarthmorean.

Judges strained a point to make their decisions early enough in the busy holiday week to enable publication in this week's Swarthmorean. These residents still have a few nights to view the displays before they are dismantled.

TRIBUTE
A tribute to our devoted friend Kathryn Charlesworth of Chester, who lived in Swarthmore for many years and passed away at the Smith Nursing Home in Media on Friday, December 10. She was a symbol of the highest type of Christian womanhood, never failing anyone in the hour of need. Hers was a life of sacrifice and of service to all mankind, doing good to all with whom she came in contact, and her loving kindness, sympathy and unselfishness endeared her to all who knew her. With her passing has gone one who may be an inspiration to everyone.

Local Family in Germany

Mrs. Paul and Joann play the piano. For the Germans judge Americans by the G.I.'s who so far have not shown too much interest in music.

The fact that it has been eight years since a musical artist has visited Germany from the United States (Heifetz and Flagstad were unknown to the university students) is another reason for their seemingly unwarranted astonishment.

Before the Pauls returned to this country they made a trip to Venice and down the Tyrol into Italy. Other trips within Germany included tours to the various castles, and a visit to Berchtesgaden and the lake region about 50 miles from Munich.

It is a picturesque country where everything that grows is pruned and cultivated. Every house and yard has a fence around it. The churches are covered with huge paintings, and the homes in the villages have the names of their owners over the doors. The castles, which frequently house Displaced Persons, date back to the Middle Ages. Some of these are positive feats of engineering, and one of great interest to practical jokers is the 15th century Hellbrunn Castle laid out with hidden water fountains to startle the guests at unexpected spots.

These castles are ornate, full of statuary, stone and wood carvings, and in spite of the elaborate stoves are often cold places to live in.

The Pauls returned to the United States in early September and are now living on Vassar avenue.

Letters To The Editor

Dear Editor:

Among the antiquated ordinances thought (?) up and passed by a council with, it seems to me, juvenile intelligence, is the following prize winner for the slapping medal. This zoning ordinance permits anyone to operate a so-called telephone business in any residence or attached building on any residential street in the borough. Said business may have unlimited number of telephones and typewriters, may post a sign 6 by 18 inches in front of residence and have an unrestricted number of transient (via auto or on foot) callers, whose cars block the front of the adjoining residences. This particular business had five telephones and three typewriters, has no regular hours but keeps open (office in whole remodeled basement) every night many times till 2 a.m. with bright fluorescent lights and typewriter noise. If the GOOD people of Swarthmore wish their homes and properties to be free of the cheap, property devaluating atmosphere that constitutes a real nuisance, then they should help to get this idiotic zoning law repealed.

A CITIZEN

College Players Honored

Two members of the 1948 Swarthmore College football squad won mention on the Associated Press All-Eastern team named recently. Both Sam Gary and Dick Hall, the throwing and catching ends of a brilliant passing combination, were among those in the "honorable mention" section of the A. P. nominations. Few small college players were accorded this honor.

Gary, a Swarthmore High School alumnus now living in Wellesley, Mass., was also named to the A. P. All-Pennsylvania squad. Here he was named to the second team backfield. Gary stood second among the nation's small college passers.

A Young Swarthmorean's Thoughts on Christmas Morning

The great outdoors was still this morning. As I went out to clip a sprig of fir, with which to decorate Aunt Mary's present, the brilliant double morning star and a beautiful bright one in the west, threw their pure light over the white covering of Christmas snow. Later as I walked across the snowy fields, the first suggestion of morning light, gradually advancing, made the dark mass of trees in the valley look mysteriously indistinct. Finally, as I stood waiting on the "short line" train platform, gazing at the hill opposite, thinly clad in a soft white covering, the silence of nature expressed itself strongly; but it was not the horrible silence of death; rather the marvelous stillness of life held in reserve, giving a sense of limitless hope and power.

This truly wonderful stillness was broken only by the soft lapping of a brook, groping its way under a dark bridge. The whole experience seemed to symbolize the infinite calm and strength of the Christian message of love and hope and life. To me it betokened their ultimate triumph over the forces of hate and death and destruction—Peace for Evermore!
