Saturday afternoon at Great Valley Sue Hosford placed second, Maje Gerner third and Ann Michener fourth in jr. girls freestyle with identical times of 29.2 (involving exciting judges' decisions and swim-offs among them) resulting in Sue erasing Maje's former 29.3 team record (Maje took it back at 29. next day during Swarthmore pool championships). These same jr. girls took three more places in butterfly - Ann fourth, Sue fifth and Maje sixth; and assisted by Pat Hayden placed second in freestyle relay with a new team record of 2:01.6, erasing the 2:03 set only two weeks earlier.

SERVICES HELD FOR A.Q. DAVIS 33 YEAR RESIDENT SUCCUMBED JULY 20

A memorial service was held at 2 p.m. Tuesday, July 23, in Trinity Episcopal Church, Swarthmore, for Alden Q. Davis, 318 North Chester road, who died Saturday, July 20, in the University of Pennsylvania Hospital, following a long illness. He was 73.

A resident of Swarthmore for 33 years, Mr. Davis was former superintendent of the old Southwark Foundry and Machine Company, later the Baldwin Locomotive Works.

He was a member of Lodge 210, F and A.M. of Collingswood, N. J.

He is survived by his wife, the former Helene M. Eder; a son Alden, Jr., of Pittsburgh; a daughter Mrs. George L. Alston, Jr., of Gettysburg; four brothers and four sisters; and seven grandchildren.

SWIM PROGRAM CLOSES TODAY

The Red Cross "Learn to Swim" at the college pool, have added two more volunteers this week to the staff of 12 teachers. They are Kathy Tidball of Riverview road and Tyler Parsons of Mt. Holyoke place. Both have had Red Cross training as Senior Life Savers and Water Safety Aids. Now there is one teacher working in the water with every two or three pupils, and progress is made more rapidly.

This week about half of the 100 youngsters chose to jump and dive into the deep water and swim across the pool. By Friday (today) when the classes end, many more will join them. Many of the children have nearly finished the Beginners Test, and any child who can perform all 20 of the skills required, has learned to be "at home" in the water.

Although many will not pass the test to be given today, it only means that it takes some longer than others to overcome the blocks children encounter in a new environment which is much bigger and stronger than they.

"All of the children who have attended the lessons these two weeks are on their way in the water," said Virginia Rath, Red Cross instructor. "That moment of confidence may come later this summer, or next summer, but it will come. And what a triumph it is to overcome a physical fear!"

ROTARY SPEAKER

Robert G. Abbey of Bala Cynwyd will be the speaker at the weekly Rotary meeting today at 12:10 in the Inglenook.

Mr. Abbey received a B.S. degree in mining engineering from Case College in 1922. Since joining General Refractories in 1936, he has traveled over the world.

He has spent considerable time in Japan, where he introduced basic refractories to the Japanese Steel Industry. He has had extensive commercial experience with the Japanese.

Mr. Abbey is a member of the American Institute of Mechanical, Metallurgical and Petroleum Engineers, the American Institute of Chemical Engineers, the American Ceramic Society and Sigma Chi Fraternity.

STUDENTS HELD LIABLE FOR TAX School To Try New Biology Approach

School Board refused to exonerate Tax Collector John A. Schumacher from collection of per capita taxes from eight 21-year-old college students who claimed "no source of income" with which to pay the $15 levy for last year. The Board also told Schumacher to issue bills to a new 39 in the student classification who were among 350 names added to the tax list following the recent census conducted for the district by the Home and School Association.

The tax, recently termed a nuisance by School Director Newton Ryerson, has been bringing in about $51000 annually for school purposes. An additional realty levy of nearly six mills would be necessary to counteract its abandonment which had been suggested by Ryerson earlier this month.

Dr. Seymour Kletzien, president of the Swarthmore Property Owners Association, told a reporter last week that so far as he knew the association is still in favor of keeping the per capita levy. Board President John Spencer had recalled to Ryerson that the Association had previously declared itself to this effect.

The Board also gave informal approval of the experimental use of a new biology text with an evolutionary approach to the subject in an accelerated ninth grade group. District Superintendent Harry Kingham, in making the recommendation, said the local biology program had long been bound to the traditional approach.

The Board accepted the resignation of Mrs. Julie M. Schlanger, fourth grade teacher, and granted a year's leave of absence to Mrs. Grace D. Witter, third grade teacher. It elected Joseph Kennedy of Fords, N. J., as a high school social studies teacher and Mrs. Audrey O'Brien as clerk in the guidance office of the high school. Kennedy, a graduate of American University now completing work on a master's degree in history at Pennsylvania State College, will be serving his first formal teaching year.

Howard Kulp has been appointed school auditor to fill the vacancy left by the resignation of Robert Hulme.

THE ROAD TO HUDDERSFIELD

James Morris' "The Road to Huddersfield," a bird's-eye view of the revolution of our time, is the Book-of-the-Month Club Selection for Midsummer, 1963. Clifton Fadiman, describing the book, calls it "a minor miracle of reporting, as instructive as it is entertaining."

Underdeveloped nations everywhere, Mr. Morris notes, find themselves nowadays "on the road to Huddersfield." Supplied with suitable leadership and provided with adequate funds, they need no longer remain underdeveloped.

Mr. Morris uses the English town of Huddersfield as a symbol of the process. Huddersfield was once a primitive crossroads farm village on the Yorkshire moors. Then, in the 18th century, the first winds of the industrial revolution began to stir. Huddersfield soon became what it has been ever since - one of England's busiest manufacturing towns, living "by steam, cogs, iron and engine-grease."

Underdeveloped areas are Mr. Morris' concern as he surveys the modern world. Above all, Mr. Morris is concerned with the World Bank, which was established in 1944 to encourage and help just such areas and which until recently was headed by its founder, the American banker Eugene R. Black.

Mr. Black's institution, it has been said, operates on two simple principles: It wants its money used well, and it wants its money back; industrialization takes money, and money means a bank, and world industrialization means a World Bank.

As a result of a decade and a half of lending, the World Bank (its formal title is the International Bank for Reconstruction and Development) has become one of the chief catalysts of the "revolution of our time."

"The Road to Huddersfield" is not a book about high finance," state the publishers. "Mr. Morris is not a financier or a banker. A young English newspaperman, he is already something of a legend in London and Manchester because of his skill as a journalist and a writer of travel books. He has written on subjects as diverse as Arabian society, South African politics, and the climbing of Mt. Everest. In his latest book his purpose is to describe the transformation of five widely separated areas where the World Bank has been at work—Ethiopia, Siam, southern Italy, Colombia and the Punjab.

Mr. Morris himself concludes that the World Bank has already done vast amounts of good and is destined to accomplish more. "Could such an instrument," he asks, "one day convince even the Communists that charity is the common duty of us all? Could it persuade even the wildest of the true-blue senators that the world is not irreparably split in hostility? Could it bring a new decency and dignity to the Huddersfield road? Could it really work? would it really last? I like to think it might."

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE NOTES

"Love" will be the subject of the Bible Lesson read in all Christian Science churches this Sunday.

Responsive Reading includes this verse from 1 John (4:8): "He that loveth not knoweth not God; for God is love."

Also to be read is this passage from the denominational textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" of which Mary Baker Eddy is the author: "The precise form of God must be of small importance in comparison with the infinite Mind or divine Love" (p. 256).

All are invited to attend the services at 11 a.m. in the church edifice at 206 Park Avenue.

LEIPER CHURCH NOTES

Morning Worship is held Sundays at 10:30 during the summer months.

The Church School classes have been discontinued for the month of August.

Building a new home? Consult your carpet man in the BLUEPRINT stage

Some times a minor variation in room size can result in important carpet economies, or in a better looking installation.

Your hearth will look better if it is elevated about the thickness of carpet, to receive carpet flush, rather than being flush with the floor.

Quarter-round (molding) may be omitted in rooms to be carpeted wall-to-wall, and the carpet installed directly to the baseboard.

It costs you nothing to discuss plans with your carpet man. If a helpful suggestion results, you will have it while you can use it.

Wallingford Man Heads CF Chapter Peter Delo Announces September Campaign

Peter M. Delo of Wallingford, chapter president of the Philadelphia-Delaware Valley Chapter, National Cystic Fibrosis Research Foundation, announces that the 1963 Fund Drive will be held during the month of September.

The annual campaign directly supports research into cystic fibrosis, an inherited childhood disease for which there is no known cure, and provides drugs, antibiotics and treatment facilities for the young victims of the ailment.

Campaign leaders will be drawn from the chapter's organized branches and committees in Southeastern Pennsylvania, Southern New Jersey and Delaware, Delo said.

A mammoth door-to-door appeal in hundreds of communities in the tri-state region will spearhead the drive. Thousands of volunteers will be recruited for the canvass which begins on Sunday, September 8. The date will be known as "Cystic Fibrosis Sunday" to our volunteers, Delo added.

Additional funds will be raised through special events. A great percentage of funds raised in the region are returned here by the National Cystic Fibrosis Research Foundation to finance projects at local hospitals.

Serious complications of CF involve the lungs, digestive system and sweat glands. There are more than 25,000 children afflicted with the disease and more than 4,000 new cases are diagnosed each year. More than half of the CF patients die before they are eight years old.

SCOTT AWARD TO DR. H.T. SKINNER
Dr. Henry T. Skinner, director of the United States National Arboretum at Washington, D. C., and president of the American Horticultural Society, was awarded the Arthur Hoyt Scott Garden and Horticultural Award at the 90th commencement exercises of Swarthmore College, Monday, June 10 by Dr. Courtney Smith, president of the College.

The Award, given every two or three years, consists of a medal and a cash gift of $1,000. Dr. Skinner was born in England and studied at the Wisley School of the Royal Horticultural Society before coming to this country in 1927 to work at the Arnold Arboretum, Jamaica Plain, Mass. In 1931 he went to Cornell University, where for 10 years he worked as an instructor in ornamental horticulture while completing undergraduate and graduate degrees.

In 1941 he became curator of the Morris Arboretum of the University of Pennsylvania in Chestnut Hill. During his 11-year curatorship, he earned the Ph.D. degree at the University of Pennsylvania, writing his thesis on the native azaleas of the eastern and central parts of the country, research which took him 25,000 miles between March and August in 1951.

He was named Director of the National Arboretum in 1952. A member of many professional and honorary horticultural and botanical societies, he is a past president of the American Association of Botanical Gardens and Arboreta, a former director and president of the American Horticultural Society, and a member of the Committee on Nomenclature and Registration of the International Society for Horticultural Science.

He has also been awarded the Jackson Dawson Medal of the Massachusetts Horticultural Society and the American Home Achievement Medal. The Scott Award was established 84 years ago by Mr. and Mrs. Owen Moon, Jr. in memory of Arthur Hoyt Scott, an outstanding amateur gardener and alumnus of Swarthmore College, in whose memory the Scott Horticultural Foundation was founded on the Swarthmore campus.

Members of the Selection Committee and Organizations they represented were Carlton B. Lees, Pennsylvania Horticultural Society; Arno H. Nehrling, Massachusetts Horticultural Society; Carl W. Fenninger, American Horticultural Society; Robert L. Wain, Men's Garden Clubs of America; Edwin F. Steffek, Horticultural Society of New York; Theodore A. Weston, The American Home magazine; Mr. and Mrs. John C. Wister, Director and Assistant Director of the Arthur Hoyt Scott Horticultural Foundation; and Courtney Smith, President of Swarthmore College.

Post-graduation plans for Swarthmore College senior football team members read more like the Dean's honor list than the senior varsity football men.

Five men have been accepted to medical school, three will work for advanced degrees in engineering, two will work toward the Ph.D. degree in history, and two more are doctoral candidates in physics and international relations; only one man out of the 11, end Terry Spruance, is not headed toward graduate school next year - he plans to teach a year and then go to graduate school for a master's degree in history.

If the team manager is included in the listing one more is added to the medical school group. These football men also gained their share of commencement honors:

Two were chosen by the faculty to graduate with distinction in Course - Harvey Buek and Mike Cook; Buek and Steve Blum were elected to the engineering honorary society Sigma Tau, and Buek was also awarded the McCabe Engineering Award as the outstanding engineering student of the senior class.

With all of their academic seriousness, these 12 seniors were key men in Coach Lew Elverson's starting lineup and were largely responsible for putting together a season's record of five wins and two losses, and for walking off with the bulk of the honors in the final team statistics of the Middle Atlantic Conference's Southern College Division.

Swarthmore won the rushing offense title with an average of 209 yards a game gained through rushing. At the same time, they were containing their opponents' ground game to 115.6 yards a contest. Swarthmore finished in front in total offense, with an average of 282 yards a game, and claimed the punting and scoring titles as well. Buek averaged 38.2 yards a punt, and the squad scored 128 points in its six conference games for an average of 21.3 yards a game.

These college football players are an example of what Swarthmore President Courtney Smith was talking about when he said:

penlander; mathematics, Hal-fred Wertz; languages, Dr. Janner; music, Robert Holm; and physical education, Millard Robinson.

Among the problems in the new program, called "articulation" by educational philosophers, is the central problem of time: each of these teachers carries a full teaching load; therefore, these administrative duties come as an additional job. The innovation next year of a centralized study hall, will, the school directors believe, result in the release of teacher-time to a degree which will help overcome this problem as well as enable all the teachers to spend more time on their primary teaching responsibilities.

On the agenda for the next year, in addition, will be the beginning of the honors program, presenting an additional demand on the time of these teachers. Honors courses will be offered by many of the department heads to selected seniors in English, history, mathematics and science. The four teachers will meet for a week August 12 to coordinate and work out the details of these courses. A method for reporting to colleges the course plan and content as well as the evaluation of the individual student's performance will be studied.

One of the references from "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" of which Mary Baker Eddy is the author will be this:

"Man is tributary to God, Spirit, and to nothing else. God's being is infinity, freedom, harmony, and boundless bliss."

"Where the Spirit of the Lord is, there is liberty." (p. 481).

All are welcome to attend the services at 11 a.m. in the church edifice at 206 Park avenue.

LEIPER CHURCH NOTES
 Morning Worship is held Sundays at 10:30 during the summer months.

The Church School classes have been discontinued for the month of August.

PRESBYTERIAN NOTES

Morning worship will be held at 10 o'clock Sunday morning. Marjory Havlick of Cameron Christian College, Libamba, Cameroon will attend the service.

Daily Vacation Church School will continue Monday through Friday, 9:30 to 11:30 each morning. Doris Hill from the office of special services will speak on the approach of the Bible with children on Tuesday morning at 10:15. All interested persons are invited to attend.

Morning Prayers are held at 9 o'clock each Tuesday. Associate minister Robert O. Browne, who has accepted a call from the Christ West Hope Presbyterian Church in Overbrook Hills, will preach his farewell sermon on Sunday, August 18. A reception in his honor will be held on the church lawn following the worship services.

YOUR SOCIAL SECURITY
 How to estimate your social security benefits is the title of a new leaflet just issued by the Social Security Administration.

Herbert W. Gruber, manager of the Chester Office reports that this is a very practical and helpful pamphlet. From this almost everyone who has worked under social security can estimate the amount of the monthly old-age benefit he or she may receive upon retirement.

In addition it shows examples of the amount of monthly benefit payable to widows and children in case of death. Every one paying a social security tax should know what future benefits may be available.

Mr. Gruber offered to send a free copy of this leaflet to every one interested. All that is needed is to telephone Tremont 4-5264 or write to Social Security Office, Chester and ask for a copy of leaflet No. 855.

"THURBER CARNIVAL" CLOSES SEASON
 The final production at the Robin Hood Theatre will be "A Thurber Carnival" a series of sketches adapted for the stage by the late James Thurber. The show opens Monday night, August 12, at 8:30 and runs through Saturday, August 17.

"A Thurber Carnival" includes such favorites as "The Night the Bed Fell on my Father," "The Secret Life of Walter Mitty," and "The Unicorn in the Garden." These pieces, some of them monologues, some of them sketches, offer a cross-section of Thurber's best wit and meaningful statements about his favorite creatures, man and dog.

Tonight and Saturday, "South Sea Bubble" will be playing at the Robin Hood Theatre at Arden, Del.

First rule of decorating: Start with your carpet

Carpet should be the first item you select for your home, for the rooms will begin to look furnished when you spread carpet color and texture on the floor. This involves an important decision, for carpet represents a major expenditure as well as a large decorative room area.

Choose a color that you really like, and preferably one that is becoming to you. Of course, it must harmonize with the other furnishings you have, or will buy, but you will refinish your walls and ceilings, and replace your draperies and slipcovers before you buy new carpet.

Even if you are not ready for your carpet, it is important to select it so that you can make your other decisions with this in mind. You will also be pleasantly surprised that carpet costs less than you may have expected.

PAULSON displays carpet samples arranged by color to make your selection easier, in our showroom or in your home.

Taking the sting out of storms

Lightning storms are still a mystery. But the damage they do is not. That's why we safeguard our powerlines—and your supply of electricity—with lightning arresters. These devices are designed to discharge lightning surges which might otherwise cause a failure of electrical equipment and consequent power interruption. • The installation of lightning arresters is one more step Philadelphia Electric takes to assure ample power, whenever and wherever needed, at rates that make electricity the biggest bargain in the family budget.

TRAVELING FOSTERS VISIT BOROUGH

Dr. Graham Foster, with his wife and four children, Derek 9, Mark 7, Margaret 6, and Louise 2 1/2, arrived in Swarthmore Friday, July 26, for a long weekend visit with Dr. Foster's parents Dr. and Mrs. Duncan G. Foster of Crest lane.

Residents of Richland, Wash., the traveling Fosters had been enroute since July 13, and in addition to visiting numerous relatives and Swarthmore College friends along the way were destined for Oreland Me., where Dr. Foster was to view, in an official capacity, the total eclipse. "And," states young Dr. Foster, noting the poor weather that frustrated scientists throughout the area, "we were among the privileged few who actually saw it."

It seems properly rewarding that Dr. Foster should have seen the eclipse, since he and his family had been on the road since July 13, and not only had they been on the road all this time, more or less, but had been camping, largely in their Greenbrier Chevrolet.

The Greenbrier, named Cassius for his lean and hungry look, is the automotive industry's answer to housing's Cape Cod Cottage. He's four feet shorter and six inches narrower (six . . . ???) than most American cars, and he transports, under full working conditions, six Fosters, bunks and sleeping equipment for each, a camp stove, ice box, dishes and several utensils, dish pan, a three week's supply of canned goods, a Murphy-type kitchen counter, dining table, the usual suitcases of clothing, a canopy to protect Dr. Foster's sleeping head (he's longer than Cassius is wide) and a 10 by 12 foot tent.

The tent is commodious, and frankly more comfortable than Cassius, but with traveling 900 miles a day, the Fosters were arriving at camp grounds anywhere from 8 to 10 p.m., well after the 4:30 deadline when enthusiastic Americans have staked out their claims for camping spots.

And so, the family camped in Cassius five of the six nights they took to come East.

The Fosters had stopped along the way to visit Spencerport, N. Y., to visit fellow Swarthmore College graduates Mr. and Mrs. Woodelf Thomas; in Durham, N. H., with another Swarthmore College couple, Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Willard; in Hopkinton, N. J., Newton Center, Mass., and New Canaan, Conn., with various relatives; and in Needham Heights, Mass., with Dr. Foster's brother Dr. John M. Foster (another Swarthmore alumnus). (On the way home they hoped to see Alumni Mr. and Mrs. Edward Paxson in Pittsburgh).

They joined Dr. Denison Bancroft, former professor at Swarthmore College, who is now chairman of the physics department at Colby on their Eclipse Expedition at Oreland, needless to say, on time.

Having been among the "privileged few" who did manage to see the eclipse under good weather conditions, Dr. Foster was earnestly questioned on the condition of his eyes. Yes, he actually had "seen" it, but through heavily overexposed photographic film, prepared under the direction of an expert. The group also used a specially prepared lens. The danger comes, Dr. Foster believes through ineptly prepared or inferior "filters," and incautious use.

The adventurous Fosters departed the Borough on Tuesday, July 30, with plans of arriving home on August 4, presumably in time for Dr. Foster a physicist, to report on the job in the laboratories at Hanford Plutonium Works, in Richland.

Three elderly Swarthmore women escaped injury at 5:49 p.m. Tuesday when a car in which they were passengers was struck by another while waiting for the traffic light at Chester road and Swarthmore avenue. Mrs. George Mansfield of 104 Park avenue, Mrs. C. D. Howard of the Swarthmore Apartments, and Mrs. Henry L. Smith of Dartmouth House were in the car of Mary D. Jeffries of West Chester, waiting on Swarthmore avenue, when the car of Margaret O'Malley, Havertown proceeding north on Chester road, according to police, went out of control while attempting a right turn into Swarthmore avenue and struck the left front of the Jeffries car, incapacitating it. The O'Malley car remained in driving condition. The other women were delivered to their homes by police car.

SRA SUMMER CLUB ENDS SEASON TODAY

For the past few weeks at the Swarthmore Recreation Association summer program, the three-year-olds have been enjoying the warm weather at summer club by spending lots of time on the playground. Chris Cale and Karen Seidelman found the trikes the most fun, but Jennifer Jenkins and Steve Pagan preferred the swings.

Indoors, Karen Rothchild and Sue Jerge enjoyed crayoning, painting and pasting. Every Tuesday and Thursday the Threes enjoyed the simple square dances taught to them by Ted Hesser and on Fridays they joined the rest of summer club for lollipops and movies.

Fours' Fourth Week
The fours' fourth week was spent at the seashore - with stories about the ocean and songs about the beach. Hillary Guenther painted seashells and Libby Salomon made a beach with sand. Lauren Kasser had a fine boat to sail in the tub. Janet wood and Bucky Burnaman had great fun pretending they were swimming at the beach.

The fifth week the fours concentrated on transportation. Trains, firetrucks, and airplanes were featured in their activities. The story about the firemen was a favorite with the fours. Laura Cale and Karen Starrett, Scott McAllister and Karl Vollmecke had fun with paper

Animal Study

In the last few weeks the kindergarten has been studying animals. Karin Krogius brought in the story of "Bambi" and Joseph Doody brought the record of the "Three Little Pigs". Robble Henderson played his records of the "Ugly Duckling" for the class. Michelle Shafroth showed the class a children's story written in French. All the kindergartners participated in a singing game for the Talent show on the last day of Summer Club.

Nature Walk
One of the highlights of the first grade's activities the past few weeks was a nature walk. The children gathered many different types of leaves which they later used for spider painting. The class enjoyed giving a pet show with the second graders on July 24. The group was especially proud of Mary Starrett and her guinea pig Joco who won a blue ribbon, and Nancy and Beth Mulvihill whose dog Westy won a white ribbon.

Other first grade ribbon winners were Brenda Perkins, Joan Bonner, Tara Troesch, and Liz Taylor. The children celebrated Jackie Schwab's birthday July 26. The last day the first graders particularly enjoyed the picnic with the rest of summer club.

'World Trip'
The second graders continued their trip around the world the last three weeks with stops in France, Germany, and Ireland. The carnival was the big event of the fourth week. The carnival, run by the second graders for the enjoyment of all the younger groups included ring toss, pin the tail on the bird, ball toss, bowling, clothespin drop, and pennies in the ring.

In the pet show with the first grade, Mac Lore's cat won second prize. The children made an excursion outside to collect flowers, sticks, pebbles and what not which they then glued onto cardboard. Ferrell Krogius, Marty Frost, and Robin Juckem were particularly good at reproducing an outdoor scene. They made jigsaw puzzles, paper bag animals, and leafy placemats.

Hobby Show
The third and fourth graders have kept busy doing crocheted paper sculpture, lanyards, and sewing. They had a hobby show with the following outstanding collections:

Any Williams and Marsha Feingold - dolls from many lands, John Olsen - stamp collection, Janice Morgan - books and shells, Meg Michener - stuffed animals; and Bill Ricksecker - special playing cards.

OTTAWAS TIE FOR CHAMPIONSHIP All-Star Game Set For Rutgers Field Sunday

The South All-Stars, Swarthmore defeated the North All-Stars last Tuesday at Swarthmore 7 to 4. Richard McCurdy and Jim Hunter scored two goals each and Sandy Thompson one. The Swarthmore boys playing were Dick Wagstaff, Tim Filler, Walt Kaminski, George Hamilton, Dino McCurdy, George Rivello, Doug Sutherland, and John Frost.

This winning squad benefited from the combined coaching efforts of David Burge and Bob Sutherland. Steve Wahman played defense for the losers.

The League All-Stars traveled to Elizabeth, N. J., last Sunday for a game with the New Jersey Stars but came out on the short end of the score 11 to 10, losing in the last 40 seconds. The New Jersey Stars will visit Rutgers Avenue Field this Sunday in a return match beginning at 2:15. This should be a well contested game and one that lacrosse fans are sure to enjoy. Hometown favorites such as Bob McHenry, Bob Frost, Dana Swan, and John Lange will be in action.

McHenry's Ottawas tied the Mainline Communches for the league championship when they won 11 to 5 in the game played last week in Bryn Mawr. Both teams completed regular play with a 7-2 record.

Coach McHenry also captured the league scoring honors for the season, with 31 goals and 10 assists. Jim Hunter was second in the minor league with 12 goals and three assists.

In Marine Research

Albert K. Harris, Jr., rising Junior majoring in biology at Swarthmore College, is working on a summer research project at the Virginia Institute of Marine Science, Gloucester Point. He is among a group of ten college students from various campuses throughout the United States who are sponsored by the National Science Foundation for marine research at the Institute this summer over a period of 10 weeks.

Harris is studying copepod parasites of oysters. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. A. Kenneth Harris, Sr., Norfolk, Va.

FRIENDS ENTERTAIN ROBERT O. BROWNE

Rev. and Mrs. Robert O. Browne and family of 213 South Chester road will be "at home" in their new home at 44 Haverford road, Overbrook Hills, Philadelphia 51, after August 20. Mr. Browne, associate minister of the Swarthmore Presbyterian Church has accepted a call from the Christ-West Hope Presbyterian Church Overbrook Hills to become its pastor.

Dr. and Mrs. James E. Clark of Riverview road are entertaining at a dinner party in their honor this evening. Mr. and Mrs. Frank G. Keener of North Chester road are giving a dinner for them on Tuesday evening.

Mrs. Browne was given a baby shower on July 30 at the home of Mrs. John McQuade Moylan with Mrs. Morris Bowie of South Chester road as co-hostess.

ANTI-BLUE ROUTE COMMITTEE FORMS

In a move aimed at upsetting Governor Scranton's recommendation of the Blue Route, John A. Harris, IV, of Ithaca has been appointed chairman of the Anti-Blue Route Action Committee of the Combined Civic Associations of Montgomery and Delaware Counties. Kenneth F. Herlihy of St. David's has been named financial chairman.

Mr. Harris says his organization plans a series of group meetings designed to wind up in front of the Governor's mansion in Harrisburg to protest the route which he avers has been on the drawing board for many years and is based on maps long out-dated.

LEAVES FOR SPAIN

James Sorber, chairman of the modern language department of Swarthmore College, left on August 1 for a six weeks stay in Madrid, Spain. He plans to renew old literary contacts and to acquaint himself with the best in contemporary writing since his last visit there in 1957.

He will be joined for a few days before coming home by George J. Becker of the English department at the college and Mrs. Becker, who are to be in Spain for most of the winter.

SWIM CLUB HOLDS MEETS, PLANS SHOW

Swarthmore Swim Club Seacolls go to St. Alban's for a meet at 9 a.m. today. At 11 a.m. next Sunday they hold their 1963 team championships at the Swarthmore pool.

Seacolls will also substitute for some vacationing Seahorses in a varsity meet against a team from the Village Bath and Tennis Club of Manhasset, Long Island, with diving at 6:30 p.m. today and swimming events at 9 a.m. tomorrow. The meet was arranged through friends of the Marshall Schmidts belonging to the visiting club. Mrs. Schmidt is now trying to find swimmers, especially in the 13-and-4-year-old boy division, who can fill local lanes since so many of Swarthmore's regular swimmers went away at the close of the formal competitive season July 28.

Thirty aqua-ballerinas are rehearsing at 9:30 daily for "Alice in Wonderland" which will be presented Saturday, August 17 at 1 p.m.

Also scheduled for the near future is the pool's annual intramural Gurnet and White meet for the 1963 team bucket the following Saturday, August 24.

Sue Hosford, who recently tied for the Club's individual championship, added to her A.U.U. laurels last weekend in Cuyahoga Falls, O., where she placed fourth in 1500 meter freestyle for 11 and 12-year-old girls and was a member of the winning freestyle relay, assisting her year-round team Vesper Boat Club to earn the trophy for the highest scoring team in that age group.

POOL WATERS SEE SPORT & BEAUTY SEACOLT CHAMPIONSHIP RACE TODAY, 11 A. M.

Swarthmore's Swim Club's Seacolls lost Friday's meet at St. Alban's 134 to 145 but had a vacation-weakened varsity Seahorse team to nose out visitors from Village Bath and Tennis Club, Manhasset, Long Island 218-192 on Saturday. It was good practice for the 1963 Seacolt championships which take place at 11 a.m. today, and for the pool's intra-mural bucket tray on Saturday, August 24.

At 1 p.m. tomorrow many Seacolls and Seahorses will join with non-competitive swimmers in costume ballet routines making up the club's annual water extravaganza "Alice in Wonderland."

Pool Records Reset

Although the Manhasset team did not win Saturday's meet two of its first place boys reset existing pool records. Joe Rizzo replaced John Schmidt's 36.5 junior boy backstroke mark with a 34.1; Steve Letzler replaced the 28.7 time of John Helebusch, Colonial Village, with a 27.5.

Swarthmore's senior boys (Carl Gersbach, Richard McCurdy, Ted Fitzgerald and Dino McCurdy) did not winning their relay, moved the 1:42.9 team record for this event up to 1:42. The previous time had been set on June 29 by Gersbach and R. McCurdy (with Fitzgerald and Sam Caldwell) and matched July 13 by Gersbach, R. McCurdy, Caldwell and Robert Sublette.

Another record of some sort was probably set by the McCurdy family which had five children swimming in one meet on Saturday (including Gretchen who swam on an unofficial eight-and-under relay). What effect this mark will have on the local phase of the population explosion, or on the August 24 Gurnet-White meet, when parents may join in also, remains to be seen.

Local Standings

Swarthmore's placings in Saturday's meet were:

SHS FOOTBALLERS LOOK TO 1963 SQUAD TO LEAVE FOR CAMP AUG. 25

The long awaited letter from High School Coach Millard Robinson to many young future gridiron greats has been mailed telling of plans for the coming season and inviting all young men interested, to join the squad.

Co-captains Carl Gersbach and Dick McCurdy are enthusiastically looking forward to the '63 season and can convince anyone within hearing that it will be "the greatest ever."

Although there will be a good nucleus of experienced players returning, there are sure to be many new faces to replace boys lost through graduation. The schedule remains much the same as last year. The coaches, Robinson and Michael Pietryka, look forward to one of the most enthusiastic and rugged squads in recent years. Joseph Kennedy, new social studies instructor, will join the coaching staff.

Plans for the season call for the boys to report for equipment Saturday morning, August 24th, at 9 a.m. at Rutgers avenue. At this time they will be given their physical examination by Dr. George B. Heckman. The following day this group will leave for five days encampment at Camp Greenlane. They will return Friday night, August 30. Practice will be resumed the Tuesday following Labor Day in preparation for the opening tussle Saturday, September 28 with Media. The annual barbecue will be held Thursday evening, September 5.

Conditioning Program
All candidates have been advised to get on a special conditioning program previous to the first day of reporting, so that they will be fit for the more rigorous day-by-day requirements of football training. Such a recommended program constitutes:

Two to four miles a day of running activities, 200 push-ups daily and extensive neck-bridging to strengthen the neck muscles. They have also been advised that they should be averaging no less than nine hours' sleep a night and to give serious thought to their diet.

Camp Program

The camp program constitutes rising at 7 followed by a short run through the woods and light calisthenics before breakfast. Next comes house-cleaning and a short meeting before the morning work-out. A short swim and lunch set the boys up for the rest period till 2. Another meeting precedes the afternoon work-out which is followed by dinner at 6.

The evening program begins at 7:30 and is interspersed inspirational speakers, movies and fun games before a bedtime snack of ice-cream or watermelon. Lights-out is at 9:30.

The coaches feel that football offers a healthful, challenging and vigorous experience for every member of the squad and it is hoped that many boys will take advantage of this opportunity. At present it looks as though the Gurnet will be taking one of its largest squads to camp.

EMERGENCY BLOOD

Swarthmore Borough residents' requests for blood may be made to Mrs. Robert M. Fudge, Swarthmore branch chairman of the American Red Cross, KI 3-5354; to Mrs. Johan Notvig, blood co-chairman, KI-3-0324; or to Mrs. Barbara Tuttle, administration assistant at the Chester Pike Swarthmore branch, LE-high 4-9920.

SEARS, ROEBUCK BUYS PIKE SITE GIBBONS HOME BD. RESERVES GROUND

Sears, Roebuck and Company today announced the purchase of 30 acres of land at the intersection of Sprout road and Baltimore pike in Springfield Township contingent upon a change in zoning for another full line department store, and an automotive center.

The land was purchased from Gibbons Home, Inc., which maintains a home for elderly women. The Gibbons Home, Inc., will build a new facility to house those who live in the home on a portion of the original tract.

The land known as the Gibbons property, has approximately 526 foot frontage on Baltimore pike which is Route 1, and 864 foot frontage on Sprout road which is Route 920.

The announcement of the land purchase came today from R.J. Doherty, general manager of Sears Philadelphia area stores. Construction will start just as soon as the ground can be readied and other details worked out and is expected to be completed sometime in 1965.

The Sears general manager pointed out that by 1970 the population in the trading area of the new Springfield store will increase by about 25%.

"But," Mr. Doherty emphasized, "the company is not only interested in 'doing business' in Springfield township, but desires to become an important civic citizen," the same as it has in all its locations in Philadelphia and the rest of the nation."

Injured in Auto Mishap

Mrs. Joshua Hopburn of North Chester road is in Taylor Hospital, Ridley Park, with fractures of both legs above the knee, a broken right wrist and a head gash sustained in a motor accident at MacDade boulevard and Millmont avenue last Thursday afternoon. Her husband, who was driving the car in which she was riding, required sutures to close a severe cut inside his mouth and also suffered pulled ligaments of the left knee and right chest.

CLASS OF 1952 CALLS FOR HELP

Kenneth J. Wright, president of the Swarthmore High School Class of 1952, has issued a call for information on the whereabouts of fellow '52 graduates in preparation for a reunion.

All correspondents are asked to send information to James Schmidt, R. F. D., Mendham, N. J., who will be in charge of the forthcoming event.

BORO ACTS ON DOG, LEAF, 'PESTS' Secures Collectors Of Offenders Monday

A new dog catcher and a new leaf loader were provided for the Borough by Council in August session Monday evening. And Acting Police Chief Elmer Zebley and new Patrolman John Wesley were raised from probationary to regular status as of August 15.

The four Councilmen Charles Lukens, Harry Smith, Robert Wilson and Herman Bloom, ratified the appointment of Robert Burford, Glen Riddle, to replace Blair Davis who resigned two months ago as the community's canincollector. Burford will receive $5 an hour for his periodic excursions within the Borough, and will deliver nabbed dogs to the S. P. C. A. near Media where owners may reclaim them by paying $2 per day board bill to the S. P. C. A.

Burford will also make out a report of particulars on the loose pooches and owners will be brought before justices of the peace for finding under state and local statutes. Penalties can be as high as $100 or 30 days in jail.

In addition to the official collector, police have the power to kill any dog running at large between sunset and sunrise, and to kill any non-license-bearing dog running at large at any time.

New Leaf Loader

The 1963 leaf loader is being purchased from Road Machinery Company, Inc., Devon at an expenditure of $2920. It was stated that a $460 lower bid did not meet the specifications.

Advertisement for bids on repairing Strath Haven and Dartmouth avenues including damaged curbing were authorized. It is also planned to replace interior pavement in the sidewalk bordering the post office, connecting Park and Rutgers avenues. An engineer's survey of Swarthmore avenue between Yale avenue and Chester road, and of Michigan avenue from Drexel place to Park avenue will be made in the hope of securing County aid on widening these stretches of highway.

Approve Spruce-Up

Council consented to spruce up the public library interior with a coat of paint provided expense did not exceed $318. A slight addition to the rear of a house at 509 Yale avenue was approved.

A group named the Community Civic Association Committee complained that garbage collection at some homes in the Union, Kenyon, Bowdoin avenue area had been taking place only once a week this summer. Council replied that deductions have been made from the collector's fee for known omissions, and urged each householder to notify the Borough office immediately whenever his home is missed on regular collection days.

Borough Secretary Ruth Townsend was authorized to attend the Secretaries Conference in Erie August 21 to 24.

Police & Fire News

In a hearing Saturday morning a Wallingford man was fined $50 for throwing glass on the highway.

The Swarthmore Fire Company covered for Springfield while that community's fire fighters enjoyed a fishing trip Saturday.

Brakes failed on the car of Gladys Henry, 230 Bowdoin avenue as it issued from Bowdoin to Yale avenue at 7 a.m. Monday, according to police, causing it to strike the car of Margaret Crompton parked in front of 511 Yale. About $50 damages resulted to the Henry car and $100 to the other.

Last week ended with a bit of batty monkey-business resulting mostly in wild-goose chases for police. Thursday night authorities did manage to get a bat out of a house at 15 Crest Lane, but Patrolman Edward Burgett "looked until his neck was stiff" for a monkey reported in a tree on Dartmouth avenue at 7 p.m. Friday and never did sight the animal. Further monkey-shines, a fight purportedly involving more advanced examples of the two-legged world, reported at 11:30 p.m. on the same street had also disappeared by the time police arrived.

Police office secretary Mrs. Frank Forwood started a week's vacation last Friday planning to catch up on a few chores and a bit of rest at her Oberlin avenue home and to pay a short visit to relatives in Boston.

ON WINNING RELAY

Bill Schmidt, Dickinson avenue, was a member of the Suburban Swim Club's eight-year-old freestyle relay team which won the 200 yard relay Sunday at the Wilmington A. A. U. Age Group Relay Carnival.

SERVICE AUG. 1 FOR DR. BAKER RETIRED MISSIONARY WARMLY HELD HERE

A funeral service was held Thursday, August 1, in the Swarthmore Presbyterian Church for the Rev. Dr. Peter G. Baker, D. D., of Morganwood, who died Monday, July 29, in the Bryn Mawr Hospital following a long illness. Interment was held in the Cedar Lawn Cemetery in Paterson, N. J.

Dr. Baker had retired in 1960 as the fifth president of McKensie Institute, Sao Paulo, Brazil, and came to Swarthmore with his wife in 1961 to live in the home which they had built at 43 Morgan circle.

Although residents here for only two years, both Dr. and Mrs. Baker continued their dedicated lives to enrich the community and church life. Dr. Baker, infrequent demand as a speaker in the church here, had spoken widely throughout the Philadelphia Presbytery.

Born in Passaic, N. J., on April 20, 1896, he received his B. A. and M. A. degrees from Hope College, Holland, Mich.; he completed his work in theology at the New Brunswick Theological Seminary in 1923.

He was married to Irene Haigh in 1924 and moved with her to Salvador, Bahia, as an educational missionary in the Presbyterian Church. They remained there for 27 years.

Dr. Baker became one of the founders of the Faculdade de Filosofia e Letras of the University of Bahia and was appointed Catedrático of the chairs of English and of American Literature, a position he held until 1951.

In 1927 he and his wife founded the Protestant Colegio Dois de Julho which offered primary, secondary and college courses. He served as its director for 24 years; there was an enrollment of 700 when he left in 1951 to become president of McKensie, the largest educational institution founded by the Americans outside of the United States. He served in that capacity from 1952, when the upper schools were officially formed into a university by decree of the Federal Government, until September, 1960 when he retired.

He was one of the founders and the first director of the English courses of the Associação Cultural Brasil Estados Unidos da Bahia and also served for a year as honorary American Vice Consul of Salvador.

Dr. Baker was a member of the Rotary Club of Sao Paulo and had been a director of the Uniao Cultural Brasil-Estados. During the First World War he served one year with the Marines, first in the infantry and later as a cadet flyer in the Marine Air Force.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE NOTES

The meaning of "Soul" will be brought out in the Lesson-Sermon at all Christian Science churches this Sunday.

Related readings from "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" of which Mary Baker Eddy is the author, will open with this passage (p. 330): "God is infinite, the only Life, substance, Spirit, or Soul, the only intelligence of the universe, including man."

An invitation is extended to all to attend the services at 11 a.m. in the church edifice at 206 Park avenue.

RED CROSS GIVES TORNADO TIPS

"If a tornado should strike here tomorrow, would you know how to protect yourself and your family?" asks Lee Gatewood, Red Cross Disaster Services chairman for the Swarthmore Branch.

"No area in the world is free from tornadoes," said Gatewood, "and some have hit southeastern Pennsylvania in the past few years, causing severe damage. These violent storms are most likely to strike on a hot, sticky day with southerly winds. Rain and hail frequently precede the storm. Dark clouds spiral downward, forming the funnel-shaped cloud characteristic of tornadoes," he continued. "The worst danger comes from the high winds in the funnel," he said, "which destroy everything they hit and fill the air with flying objects. Fortunately, the funnel sweeps over a rather narrow path."

"If you keep in mind the following steps to take before, during and after a storm," said Gatewood, "you need not panic when warned to expect it."

If you are indoors, shut off electric and fuel lines. Try to secure anything that might blow loose. Open windows on the north and east sides of the house; tornadoes usually travel southwest to northeast, and the funnel vacuum can cause a house literally to explode if closed up tightly. If possible, go to a tornado cellar, cave or underground excavation. Avoid buildings with large, unsupported roofs.

If it strikes while you are in a public building, stay away from windows. The best shelter is a storm cellar on the southwest inside wall on a lower floor. At home, stay in the southwest corner of the basement or under a heavy piece of furniture placed against an inside wall. Keep a first aid kit, flash lights, and portable radio handy.

If you are caught in open country, move at right angles to the tornado. Take cover in the nearest depression, such as a ditch or ravine. On the city streets, seek shelter in the nearest strong building.

"After the tornado passes," Gatewood concluded, "report all loose or fallen wires to the local light and power company or the nearest official safety unit, such as police headquarters. If a nearby area has been heavily damaged, stay

'A LOOK BEHIND THE SCENES . . .' English Dept. Outlines 3 Major Concerns

"I have taught my course for 21 years, and each year I feel that NEXT year the course is going to be taught the way it should be." Anon. Speaking to school directors recently on the language arts program in the Swarthmore-Rutledge School District, Mrs. Hanna Mathews, department head for the English program, outlined three areas of concern in coordinating its goals and curricula from kindergarten through 12th grade.

The first is to maintain and reinforce the quality of Swarthmore's traditional approach to literature as well as composition. In literature the school aims to give the needed techniques for reading all kinds of material.

In addition it hopes to introduce the Swarthmore student to enjoyment and understanding of important literature of the past and present. This has been based on a philosophy which necessitates small classes with emphasis on creative writing, logical thinking and research techniques; a method designed to teach children to handle the written language through almost daily application.

Essay-Type Exams

Examinations stress essay-type questions in preference to true-false and multiple choice quizzes. Such emphasis requires a great deal of teacher time, for in order to be effective, these written exercises must be read carefully and commented upon fully. The classes have gradually increased over a period of years, resulting in an increased teacher load, and this approach has been more and more difficult to maintain.

Two years ago lay readers were employed to lighten the load. The quality of the work done by the lay reader was excellent, but the teachers felt they were losing their most important contact with the student, in terms of keeping in touch with his needs and progress, and for that reason decided to return to the old system. An additional teacher was added to the high school staff in order to reduce the classes handled by each teacher from five to four sections.

Weekly Themes

Last year each child from seventh to 12th grade wrote a weekly theme which was commented on by his teacher personally in addition to the essay-type quizzes. Even with the extra teacher, nobody thought this would be easy; but it was a challenge, and Mrs. Mathews was happy to report at the end of the school year that this goal had been achieved.

Gradually being incorporated into this traditional pattern is the new learning available through the growing science of linguistics. This is the laboratory study of what, actually, our language is; the polyglot accumulation from many other languages - Latin, Germanic and romance - analysis of its form and structure, and its history.

Growing Structure

Language is not an absolute entity, with unchanging laws but a living growing structure to which we are constantly making additions and changes. Mrs. Mathews remarked, "As an example she chose the following line from a poem written in England in the 13th century: 'el lange ic habbe child i been a weord and ech a dede.'"

By the 15th century, Geoffrey Chaucer, an English poet wrote: "He never yet no vyleyne ne sayde In al his lif unto no manner wight."

A literal modern English translation of these lines would be:

"He never said nothing villainous about nobody In all his life to no person."

(from "Discovering Your Language" by Postman, Morine and Morine, Holt, Rinehart, and Winston, Inc., 1962) The two examples of Old English represent "correct" English grammar and "correct" English spelling for the particular age in which it was written.

More Effective Teaching
From those who do understand the structure, have come suggestions for more effective teaching of English. For example, an English grammar based almost purely on classical Latin, as our traditional grammar is based, is not only inaccurate, but will also not give as effective an understanding of English as an approach based on the actuality of English as it is today.

Gradually mixing certain aspects of linguistic findings into the traditional way of teaching, learning where the best place is in the curriculum to introduce aspects of the new learning, and assessing how much may be usefully added, are all parts of the problems the teachers have set themselves to solve.

'Historical Linguistics'

In 12th grade, students are being introduced to historical linguistics. Last year, 10th graders worked with "English Sentences" by Paul Roberts. Results showed that these students attained a sounder understanding of sentence structure than those without this work. It was decided to introduce the use of this book into two sections of the ninth grade English curriculum for experimental purposes.

'Keeping Up' With Students

Thus, based on the realization that the ability to communicate with clarity and precision (hopefully with imagination and originality as well) is at the heart of all our adult endeavors and understanding. Our teachers are working to develop this skill in their students in increasingly valid and efficient ways.

"Perhaps the most exciting contribution is the change in the present student himself," says Mrs. Mathews. "Today's student is so well informed, so well read, so firmly aware of the world outside his windows, that it takes an alert teacher to keep up with his questioning mind and his eager curiosity. He talks about Plato and Aristotle, about existentialism and metaphysics, about almost everything and it keeps a teacher busy to keep up with a Swarthmore student."

News Notes

Abigail Warnes of Woodbrook road returned home Saturday from the Bouve-Boston School where she has been attending summer classes.

Miss Pamela Paul of Pocomps, formerly of Wallingford, has completed her studies at the Katherine Gibbs School in Boston and has accepted a position with the Central Intelligence Agency, Washington, D. C. Miss Paul graduated from Ambler Junior College in 1962.

Dr. and Mrs. Walter B. Kelighton, Jr., of Cedar Lane will have as their guests for a few days their son and daughter-in-law Mr. and Mrs. James Kelighton who are enroute home to Trevese from Gainesville, Fla., where they have been staying for the past two months.

COX DIRECTS SERVICE UNIT

15 VOLUNTEERS AID PROJECTS IN COLOMBIA

Alex Cox, guidance counselor at Swarthmore High School, is spending the summer in Cali, Colombia, South America as director of a Study Seminar and service unit under the Life Fellowship Program. The purpose of this program is to deepen the human relations between the people of Colombia and those of the United States, to explore the acceptable methods of helping people to help themselves, and to discover a few of the next steps in community development.

The group of 15 Spanish-speaking volunteers from the U. S., Canada, and other countries are giving the months of July and August to the cause of aiding community development in a people-to-people program in cooperation with a group of volunteers from Colombia and other Latin American countries.

Sponsored by the Salud De Publica (Department of Public Health) of the city of Cali, the Colombian Ministry of Community Development, and various local agencies, the U.S. group has been working hand in hand with members of the Peace Corps. The group has been learning to understand the problems faced by the agencies in Colombia that are concerned with matters of health, education, and social welfare. Their services are being extended in such areas as literacy, recreation for youth, childcare, nutrition, elementary education and health, public sanitation, and general meeting of human needs.

In addition to direct work with the people, the Life Fellowship Group has been studying the relations and development (historical and cultural) of the U.S. and Colombia. It has also been making a study of the political, social and economic conditions in Latin America with the hope that their knowledge and experience may help to develop better relations between our own and the Latin American countries and also that some practical solutions to the current problems of illiteracy, malnutrition, and poor sanitation may be provided.

Approximately 50 boys are lined up for the exodus, many of whom have earned or contributed to camp expenses, cost for proper shoes, and in many cases, insurance.

The camp program will feature as guest speakers three Garnet Greats:

Dana Swan, freshman football coach at Washington and Lee University on Sunday night; William McHenry, athletic director and football coach at Lebanon Valley College on Monday night; and George Storck, newly appointed football coach at Franklin and Marshall College, on Wednesday night.

ROTARY TO HEAR S. AMERICAN TRAVELER

Nelson Hoy of Wallingford, retired business executive, will be today's speaker at Swarthmore Rotary Club.

Mr. Hoy, an active game warden and an ardent conservationist, played a major role in the establishment of the Tincum Bird Sanctuary.

He will discuss today a recent trip around South America which took him into the interior of Paraguay. The meeting will begin at 12:10 in the Inglenook Tea Room.

SIX SEACOLT CHAMPS NAMED GARNET-WHITE VIE IN RELAY FRAY SATURDAY

Sue Tolley with 18 points and John Morrow with 16 points won the 11 and 12-year-old girls' and boys' trophies in last Friday's championships of the Swim Club's J.V. Seacolt team. Sue placed first in backstroke, freestyle and butterfly and second in breaststroke. John was first in backstroke and freestyle and second in breaststroke and butterfly.

Runners-up were Lynn Rankin with 11 points and John Van Ravensway with eight.

Leslie Sutherland placed first in backstroke, freestyle and butterfly and second in breaststroke and freestyle for 16 points as winning boy. Kelly Ashley, Bruce Lee, Rich Piccard, Ken Stead, Roger Ullman, Dave Tolley, and Alf Fine will contribute heavily in the years to come.

During the past two weeks the boys have been running six to 10 miles a day on their own preparing for the workouts ahead. The emphasis has been on getting the legs in shape as they have been promised a more varied but yet harder program this year. There will be the usual wheat germ pills to eat and weight jackets to wear but there will be more emphasis on hill running and speed play.

Most of this work will again take place on the college cross country course and all Swarthmore citizens are welcome to watch the practices and forthcoming meets.

APPOINT GARFIELD PENN LECTURER

Dr. Eugene Garfield, Ogden avenue, director of the Institute for Scientific Information, Philadelphia, has been appointed a lecturer at the University of Pennsylvania Moore School of Electrical Engineering. He will conduct the university's first course in information retrieval.

CROSS COUNTRY BEGINS MONDAY 1st Meet Sept. 17th With Maple-Newton

Summer relaxation ended prematurely last week for over 30 Swarthmore High School boys who finally received the long awaited letter from cross country coach Sandy Heath. Practice will begin Monday at 4:30 behind the College Field House and will continue at that time until school begins.

All boys planning to be on the squad this year should report with a permission slip signed by their parents and doctor, ready to run. This year's pre-school practice sessions will be particularly important as the first meet with Maple-Newton is only a little more than three weeks away, on September 17.

After being at a disadvantage the first two years through lack of experience, the local runners are looking forward to facing the opposing schools on more equal footing. Following a 4-4 record in their initial season and an 8-2 record last year the boys will be working for continued improvement.

Chances at the present appear to be good for a successful season because only three members of last year's team, Rick Draper, Tim Jenkins, and David Restrepo with 11 and 14 points respectively.

9 and 10-Year Olds: Elizabeth Logue swam in with 12 points for the 9 and 10-year old girls' cup by placing first in backstroke, second in breaststroke and freestyle and third in butterfly. Mark Restrepo with 18 points was top boy through firsts in breaststroke, freestyle and butterfly.

Besides this large group of returning veterans, able help is expected to come from Steve Boik, Jim Mayer, Paul Donovan, Ennis Duling and Chip Forwood.

Football camp, football barbecue, football banquet, hockey and cross country picnic, basketball banquet, lacrosse award night, and spring sports ice cream feast.

The committee will provide awards for outstanding players although the main features of the festivities will be fun and morale boosting.

A membership campaign will be launched for the months of September and October. The parents of both boys and girls will be reached to round out the full program for all sports.

EMERGENCY BLOOD

Swarthmore Borough residents' requests for blood may be made to Mrs. Robert M. Fudge, Swarthmore branch chairman of the American Red Cross, KI 3-5354; to Mrs. John Nutvig, blood co-chairman, KI-3-0324; or to Mrs. Barbara Tuttle, administration assistant at the Chester Pike Swarthmore branch, LE-high 4-9920.

SCAC SETS THURS. MEETING DATE Membership Campaign Begins in September

The Swarthmore Citizens Athletic Committee is looking forward to another year of activity in providing awards, minor equipment, and refreshments for the athletic teams. This committee was formed to support the football team and, being successful, extended its support to other teams in succeeding years.

In the rush to meet the finish line, the following readers jumped the fences into another field:

New Cowboys - Nancy Aaron, Sally Fox, Lee Gatewood; Jeffrey Gottsegen, Lisa Gottsegen, Pamela Larson, Kurt Leinbach.

New Buckaroos - Juli Westbrook, Alan Kelly, Mark Restrepo, Pamela Rothschild, Susan Southworth, Joan Urban.

All members of the Summer Reading Roundup are invited to A Dude Ranch Rodeo on Wednesday, September 4, at 4 o'clock. It will be held outside the Library. There will be games and refreshments.

COX REPORTS

Below is a letter from Alex Cox, guidance counselor at Swarthmore High School, concerning his experiences this summer in Cali, Colombia, S. A., of a study seminar and service unit under the Lisle Fellowship Program.

Mr. Cox is expected to return home on August 25.

"After a week of orientation and planning in Bogota and another three days meeting our contacts in Cali who welcomed us to help in any way we could during our six or so weeks here, our students have finally divided into teams and are now working in three neighborhoods crowded with illiterate and malnourished people. I am trying to take care of a few loose ends - bank deposits, missing Nigerian student from Brazil, fouled-up plumbing in the house we have rented for the summer, weekly report to The Lisle Fellowship, and other such matters.

Two of our students are helping with a survey of nutritional practices of families where there are 300 starving children and only 16 health-center beds available for treatment of their malnutrition (7000 died before reaching the age of 1 year in 1962). Three others are working with literacy and recreation in a community built on the edge of an open sewer called Aguas Negras. Five have gone in a jeep to a primitive area on the Pacific Coast where Africans and Indians have preserved many valuable traditions, but need help with literacy, health and nutrition, and with the development of local resources to provide for their economic necessities.

When not supervising the projects, I shall be helping to organize youth groups around their athletic, social, and cultural interests in a crowded neighborhood where youth have little idea of what can be done with leisure time. I may have some time to counsel with delinquent boys who are spending several weeks (or months if the disposition of their cases is difficult) in a local Youth Observation Center much like the Youth Study Center in Philadelphia.

This country is beautiful, the climate varying a great deal from one altitude to the next, with natural resources enough to provide promise of a fine future for its citizens.

We have been impressed by the caliber of the government officials and by the concern of university professors, artists, architects, musicians, doctors, etc., whom we have met here. They are spending a great deal of their leisure time trying to grapple with the serious difficulties facing the great bulk of the population. These difficulties are reflected in the statistic of 20,000 children who died last year in all of Colombia.

One of the corresponding references from "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" of which Mary Baker Eddy is the author will be this:

"When the divine precepts are understood, they unfold the foundation of fellowship, in which one mind is not at war with another, but all have one Spirit. God, an intelligent source, in accordance with the Scriptural command: 'Let this Mind be in you, which was also in Christ Jesus' (p. 276). All are invited to attend the services at 11 a.m. in the church edifice at 206 Park Avenue.

"LOVE MAKES THE WORLD GO 'ROUND'"

The Swarthmorean staff, reviewing its advertising lineup this week, was suddenly struck by the amount of love dispensed to the public by the individual advertiser...

One suggests, swiftly goodly, that if you wish to feel better, say a kind word today to someone; another, in a burst of brotherly love, has offered a grand and glorious saving in bulk products; a third, with an experienced eye to the future, lovingly reminds readers that Christmas is coming, and the time to order is NOW so that fond messages may be written in leisure, AND in anticipation of helping the postal service have a less hectic season (Zip code not to the contrary); a fourth, movingly, acknowledges his indebtedness to loyal customers; a fifth, economically, reminds tax payers of the 2 per cent discount for citizens remitting by August 31. In the Classified Advertising too, are earnest exhortations, (published weekly and firmly) to care for the birds; announcements of kittens and cats without homes, whose finders have taken the time and energy to call in the information in the hope of a joyful reunion between pet and owner (or honestly admit, "It's obviously a pet, but we'd love to keep it."); and those who, uproariously, invite contributions habitually known as "white elephants" for their forthcoming auction for charity purposes.

And so, The Swarthmorean takes this late August issue to salute its subscribers ... not only the ones mentioned above, but the others, who promise, and give, faithful service, week in and week out (and believe us, 'The Swarthmorean Knows').

The Swarthmorean also takes this late week in August to salute its subscribers ... the cooperative ladies (and gentlemen) who, dragged from the bed, the garden, the neighborly discussion, or quiet period (or horror of horrors, the very Morning Coffee or Afternoon Tea our reporter is calling about) take time out to confide in The Swarthmorean that yes, they HAVE some personal news.

The Swarthmorean loves, too, the subscribers who, at that moment (scratching head and trying to remember visiting relatives, camping children, weekend trips, lawn socials and buffet suppers) confess that they haven't a THING, but will let us know. The Swarthmorean's affection to subscribers includes, he it underlined, those too, who graciously state they are merely "vegetating" at this time, but WILL CALL, IF AND DO ... if something comes up.

It is very evident to the Swarthmorean Staff that The Swarthmorean's advertisers love people. The Swarthmorean Staff, in turn, loves its advertisers* and its subscribers. *And patronizes them, too!

Red Cross Gives Quiz

On Water Emergencies

By knowing what to do in water emergencies you can do much to avoid becoming a Labor Day drowning statistic, says Virginia Rath, Red Cross water safety chairman for the Swarthmore Branch.

"Every year there are about 6,500 drownings, with a heavy percentage caused by a swimmer not knowing how to handle common emergency situations," Miss Rath continued. "Every swimmer should know more than just how to keep afloat." Can you answer every question in the following Red Cross water safety quiz? Check yourself, and if you have even one wrong answer, double your caution while swimming. The answers are at the end of the quiz. "That one chance you take, either in overestimating your ability or your endurance, may have serious consequences," concluded Miss Rath.

1. You are swimming and become fatigued or frightened. You should:

(a) Swim the crawl stroke fast to shallow water; (b) Float on your back, moving hands under water; (c) Bob up and down.

2. While walking into the water, you step into a deep hole. You should:

(a) Drop your head forward and move your arms under a t e r dog-paddle style; (b) Throw up your hands and call for help; (c) Sink to the bottom; push off with your feet to bring yourself up.

3. You are swimming in heavy surf and feel the current carrying you to sea. You should:

(a) Swim toward shore; (b) Swim at right angles to the current; (c) Float with the current.

4. You are swimming and see someone in trouble. You should:

(a) Call for help and stay with him until help arrives; (b) Pull him to shore and start giving mouth-to-mouth resuscitation.

5. You want to test your ability at distance swimming. You should:

(a) Tell someone you're going and head out to sea; (b) Have someone follow you in a boat; (c) Swim alone parallel to shore.

6. You've chosen a beach day with heavy currents and riptides. You should:

(a) Stay close to shore and the lifeguards; (b) Save the swim for another day.

7. Your boat capsizes in a rough sea. You should:

(a) Get away from the boat, tread water and call for help; (b) Try to swim to shore; (c) Hang on to the boat.

8. Your friends are seeing how long they can hold their breath under water. You should:

(a) Show them how long you can hold your breath; (b) Steer clear of this sport.

Answers

1. (b) This restful position will let you renew your strength; moving around will only tire you more.

2. (a) or (c) If you use (c), continue pushing up and down until you are clear of the hole.

3. (b) This will take you away from the current and is not as tiring as fighting it.

4. (a) If the victim is conscious and there is a lifeguard to bring him in. (b) If he is unconscious and you know how to give artificial respiration.

5. (b) This is your safest bet, but (c) is acceptable.

6. (a) Provided you are confident of your ability in rough water.

7. (c) Hang on to the boat's side or top. Even when filled with water it will float.

8. (b) This is too likely to be fatal. Carbon dioxide building up in the blood stream and brain leads to unconsciousness; the underwater swimmer then inhales water and drowns.

Mass Polio Drive To Begin In Fall

Immunization Program Needs 800 Helpers

Glee A. Duff of Moylan has been named program coordinator for the mass polio immunization drive to be held this fall in Delaware County. The announcement was made Monday by Dr. J. Albright Jones of Swarthmore and Dr. Robert F. Plotkin of Broomall, co-chairmen of the polio steering committee of the Delaware County Medical Society.

Mr. Duff, a public relations counsel, when asked about the program, stated:

"Few people realize the tremendous amount of planning and organization necessary to put on a successful project of this magnitude. I would estimate that we will need at least 800 volunteers to carry out the many duties involved."

"We plan to set up an honorary advisory committee as well as committees for medical manpower, non-medical manpower, public relations, sites for feeding, finance, supplies and distribution, and statistics."

"According to the 1960 census there are over 553,000 people in Delaware County and it will be our goal to administer the oral vaccine to as nearly 100% of the population as is possible. In addition to the work of the volunteers the success of the program will largely depend upon the cooperation we receive from newspapers, radio and television stations, religious leaders as well as every organization in Delaware County."

"It is planned to operate the program concurrently with similar drives in Philadelphia and Montgomery Counties. The Sabin oral vaccine will be administered in a sugar cube at selected sites throughout the county on three different dates. There are three vaccines, one to immunize against each of the three known types of polio. Authorities on polio feel that mass immunization programs should start in the fall rather than during the warm months when other types of infection are more prevalent and that a period of six weeks should elapse between feedings. "We plan to offer the first dose on Sunday the latter part of October. The committees will be announced as the organization for the program progresses."

Tek Bids Farewell To Swarthmore

Word has been received that Teklestin Tewelde-Berhan, foreign exchange student from Ethiopia, arrived August 10, duly met by the American family who will care for him until his school in Addis Ababa resumes.

Tek, a "son" for a year of the Clarence Boyers on Dickinson avenue, has a claim to fame, because he is the first International Christian Youth Exchange student to be sent abroad from the Coptic Church, possibly the oldest Christian Church in the world, dating from apostolic times.

And by the same token, the Swarthmore Presbyterian Church could also lay a claim because it was through a taped recording of a devotional and choral service that the Ethiopian Church authorities decided to let Tek study in the United States.

Probably no one will ever fully appreciate the terrific adjustment that Tek went through during his year here, half a world from home, from a country far removed from American customs and habits.

The U. S. A. was pretty much as he thought it would be, however. And although the Boyers' comfortable house boasts no swimming pool and the yard is his introductory tour of 210 Dickinson was, "its like the movies!"

Tek, coming from a school that struggles to issue a monthly cake of soap to its students and a yearly white garment (Continued on Page 8)

TENNIS TOURNAMENT NOW UNDERWAY

As the evenings grow shorter, the tennis play grows longer and more intense at the Swarthmore Tennis Club Courts.

The tournaments have now begun, and the outcome in any one of them is entirely unpredictable. There are several fine new players in the club this year who promise last year's finalists a real contest.

In the men's doubles, the only tournament which has been underway for some time, Bill Trumpler and Stan Billing, last year's winners, have played the finals and will play the winner of the Bruce Pennington-George Cowdright versus Dick Clarkson-Harry Costello match.

W.S.C.S. TO MEET SEPTEMBER 11TH

The Regular monthly meeting of the Women's Society for Christian Service of the Methodist Church will be held on Wednesday evening, September 11 at 8 p.m. in Fellowship Hall of the church.

Mrs. Paul G. Masters, president of the W.S.C.S. of the Philadelphia Conference and acting director of the Deaconess Homes, will speak on "The Role of the Christian Woman in the Family and Community."

A social hour will follow the talk. Those in need of transportation are asked to call Mrs. Harry L. Bernard, KI 3-0235. No card reminders will be sent out this year.

EMERGENCY BLOOD

Swarthmore Borough residents' requests for blood may be made to Mrs. Robert M. Fudge, Swarthmore branch chairman of the American Red Cross, KI 3-5354; to Mrs. John Natvig, blood co-chairman, KI-3-0324; or to Mrs. Barbara Tuttle, administration assistant at the Chester Pike Swarthmore branch, LE-high 4-9920.

GARNETS WIN, LABOR DAY SET

Things were evened-up at the Swim Club Saturday with Garnets beating Whites 60 to 47 in the annual relay meet, making the all time total four wins for each of the teams in this intra-mural contest for the team bucket.

Chilly weather and vacations made it difficult to round out full teams in all categories so boys and girls joined in some events and others used an unusual number of swimmers.

First for Garnets
Placing first for Garnets were:

Freestyle - midg. boys T. and W. Schmidt, R. Lamberson, R. Gary; Jr. mixed S. J. Schmidt, M. McCurdy, S. Hosford; 13 to 29 girls T. McCurdy, P. Schmidt, J. Dunn; 13 to 29 boys R. and D. McCurdy, T. Hosford, M. McCurdy, M. Kingham, J. Schmidt; same 13 to 29 girls; crescendo - J. Schmidt, T. Fitzgerald, S. Caldwell, R. Lamberson, S. Hosford.

First for Whites

Taking first places for Whites were:

Seymour, J. Hood, S. Tolley, A. Townes, W. Gill, B. Herschel, R. Rankin.

Family Fun Schedule

The final program for the year will be held on Labor Day afternoon. At 4 o'clock Novelty races (spoon for 10 and under; balloon for 11 and 12 and under; candle for 13 and 14, tube-unlimited) will be followed by family relays and a water polo game. At 5 p.m. awards will be presented to winners of the Adult USA Tour of Daily Laps, the outstanding swimmer of the year, the Millard Robinson trophy for all around performance, sportsmanship, service, and the high scorer in the season's lifesaving courses. At 6 p.m. a picnic will be spread for all those who sign up in advance at the office. ## Mass Polio Drive To Begin In Fall

Immunization Program Needs 800 Helpers

Glee A. Duff of Moylan has been named program coordinator for the mass polio immunization drive to be held this fall in Delaware County. The announcement was made Monday by Dr. J. Albright Jones of Swarthmore and Dr. Robert F. Plotkin of Broomall, co-chairmen of the polio steering committee of the Delaware County Medical Society.

Mr. Duff, a public relations counsel, when asked about the program, stated:

"Few people realize the tremendous amount of planning and organization necessary to put on a successful project of this magnitude. I would estimate that we will need at least 800 volunteers to carry out the many duties involved."

"We plan to set up an honorary advisory committee as well as committees for medical manpower, non-medical manpower, public relations, sites for feeding, finance, supplies and distribution, and statistics."

"According to the 1960 census there are over 553,000 people in Delaware County and it will be our goal to administer the oral vaccine to as nearly 100% of the population as is possible. In addition to the work of the volunteers the success of the program will largely depend upon the cooperation we receive from newspapers, radio and television stations, religious leaders as well as every organization in Delaware County."

"It is planned to operate the program concurrently with similar drives in Philadelphia and Montgomery Counties. The Sabin oral vaccine will be administered in a sugar cube at selected sites throughout the county on three different dates. There are three vaccines, one to immunize against each of the three known types of polio. Authorities on polio feel that mass immunization programs should start in the fall rather than during the warm months when other types of infection are more prevalent and that a period of six weeks should elapse between feedings."

"We plan to offer the first dose on Sunday the latter part of October. The committees will be announced as the organization for the program progresses."

Tek Bids Farewell To Swarthmore

Word has been received that Tekleson Tewolde-Berhan, foreign exchange student from Ethiopia, arrived August 10, duly met by the American family who will care for him until his school in Addis Ababa resumes.

Tek, a "son" for a year of the Clarence Boyers on Dickinson avenue, has a claim to fame, because he is the first International Christian Youth Exchange student to be sent abroad from the Coptic Church, possibly the oldest Christian Church in the world, dating from apostolic times.

And by the same token, the Swarthmore Presbyterian Church could also lay a claim because it was through a taped recording of a devotional and choral service that the Ethiopian Church authorities decided to let Tek study in the United States.

Probably no one will ever fully appreciate the terrific adjustment that Tek went through during his year here, half a world from home, from a country far removed from American customs and habits. The U. S. A. was pretty much as he thought it would be, however. And although the Boyers' comfortable house boasts no swimming pool and the yard is his introductory tour of 210 Dickinson was, "It's like the movies!"

TENNIS TOURNEY NOW UNDERWAY

As the evenings grow shorter, the tennis play grows longer and more intense at the Swarthmore Tennis Club Courts.

The tournaments have now begun, and the outcome in any one of them is entirely unpredictable. There are several fine new players in the club this year who promise late in the season's finalists a real contest.

In the men's doubles, the only tournament which has been underway for some time, Bill Trumpler and Stan Billing, last year's winners, have reached the finals and will play the winner of the Bruce Pennington-George Cowdright versus Dick Clarkson-Harry Coslett match.

W.S.C.S. TO MEET SEPTEMBER 11TH

The Regular monthly meeting of the Women's Society for Christian Service of the Methodist Church will be held on Wednesday evening, September 11 at 8 p.m. in Fellowship Hall of the church.

A social hour will follow the talk.

Those in need of transportation are asked to call Mrs. Harry L. Bernard, KI 3-0235. No card reminders will be sent out this year.

Swarthmore Borough residents' requests for blood may be made to Mrs. Robert M. Fudge, Swarthmore branch chairman of the American Red Cross, KI 3-5354; to Mrs. Johan Nutvig, blood co-chairman, KI-3-0324; or to Mrs. Barbara Tuttle, administration assistant at the Chester Pike Swarthmore branch, LE-high 4-9920.

GARNETS WIN, LABOR DAY SET

Things were evened-up at the Swim Club Saturday with the Swarthmore Whites 60 to 47 in the annual relay meet, making the all time total four wins for each of the teams in this intra-mural contest for the team bucket.

Chilly weather and vacations made it difficult to round out full teams in all categories so boys and girls joined in some events and others used an unusual number of swimmers.

First for Garnets

Placing first for Garnets were:

Freestyle - midg. boys T. and W. Schmidt, R. Lamberson, R. Gary; jr. mixed S. and J. Schmidt, M. McCurdy, S. Hosford, 13 to 29 girls T. McCurdy, T. Fitzgerald, S. Caldwell; backstroke - the same jr. and 13 to 29 swimmers, plus an "over 30" group composed of Mr. and Mrs. M. Schmidt, Dr. D. McCurdy, S. Gary; medley - same midg. boys; jr. mixed S. Hosford, M. McCurdy, M. Kingham, J. Schmidt; same 13 to 29 girls; crescendo - J. Schmidt, T. Fitzgerald, S. Caldwell, R. Lamberson, S. Hosford.

First for Whites

Taking first places for Whites were:

The final program for the year will be held on Labor Day afternoon. At 4 o'clock Novelty races (spoon for 10 and under; balloon for 11 and 12 and under; candle for 13 and 14, tube unlabeled) will be followed by family relays and a water polo game. At 5 p.m. awards will be presented to winners of the Adult USA Tour of Daily Laps, the outstanding swimmer of the year, the Millard Robinson trophy for all around performance, sportsmanship, service, and the high scorer in the season's lifesaving courses. At 6 p.m. a picnic will be spread for all those who sign up in advance at the office. #### MEMORIAL SERVICE 5 SAT. FOR ARTHUR JONES

Calif.; University of Colorado.

In addition to magazine and professional articles, his publications include "The Continuation School in the United States," 1907; "Education and the Individual," 1926; "Principles of Guidance," 1930 and revised in '34, '46, '51 and '61 (a Japanese edition was also published); "Education of Youth for Leadership," 1938 (Portuguese edition 1950 for use in Brazil); "Principles of Unit Construction," joint author, 1939 (Spanish edition).

Born March 21, 1871, on a farm in Jones Grove, outside Grinnell, Iowa, he was the son of Publius V. Jones and Lavinia Burton Jones. His education began in a one-room rural township school. He graduated from Grinnell High School in 1888, attended Iowa College Academy, and received his A.B. degree from Grinnell College in 1893 and his Ph.D. from Columbia University in 1907. At Grinnell he played varsity football and varsity track for the four years and was pole vault champion of Iowa for two years. While teaching in Minneapolis, he met Miss Ethel Louise Rounds whom he married in St. Paul, Minn., on June 25, 1899. Together they enjoyed music both singing in church choirs. They walked, camped and traveled widely in this country and abroad. Mrs. Jones died in April, 1952.

Dr. Jones was a member and an elder of the Swarthmore Presbyterian Church. He was a member of the Torch Club, International professional organization. His honorary societies were Phi Beta Kappa, Phi Delta Kappa, Phi Kappa Phi, and Kappa Phi Kappa. He had many interests — an early and continuing curiosity in the field of geology which enriched his outdoor life and added to his enthusiastic vacationing at Sebek Lake, Maine, where he and Mrs. Jones first went in 1912, and returned as frequently as possible. It was his satisfaction to infect others with this association. He had an enthusiasm for youth and many of his students and younger friends were encouraged by his confidence to achieve more than seemed possible. He had a mischievous and quick humor which was contagious in a group and continued until his death.

Dr. Jones is survived by two sons Dr. Burton W. Jones, Boulder, Colo., and Donald P. Jones of Mansion Drive, Upper Providence Township, with whom he had made his home since 1952; six grandchildren; and five great grandchildren. A private funeral service was held Thursday in Muncy Valley with interment on Friday in the Forest Dale Cemetery, Malden, Mass.

The family requests that no flowers be sent. Friends who wish may contribute to Dr. Jones' name to the Memorials Committee of the Swarthmore Presbyterian Church.

Dr. Spiller is a graduate of Penn and received his master's and doctor's degrees there. He taught at the university from 1920 to 1921 and left to join the Swarthmore College faculty. He became professor of English at Swarthmore in 1934.

He returned to the Penn faculty in 1945. He has been a visiting Fulbright professor at the University of Oslo, Norway, and the University of London, England.

BOY MEETS BEES

Richard Goldberg, seven-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Goldberg of Vassar avenue, took a walk along the creek behind Dickinson avenue on Friday and stepped into a passel of trouble - a bee's nest. His three young friends rushed to his rescue by striking at the bees with their T-shirts, but not before Richard received 35 bee stings.

Mrs. David Payor of Dickinson avenue found the boys and brought them home. Richard was taken to a Morton doctor for a shot of cortisone, just to be sure, but when last heard from, he was fine!

GRADUATES TODAY

John L. Wetlaufer, son of Mr. and Mrs. Leslie A. Wetlaufer of Strath Haven avenue, will graduate today, August 30, from school at the U. S. Coast Guard Reserve Training Center in Yorktown, Va.

An engineman third class in the reserve, he attended this two-week school for his annual summer training. He learned to man the ship's sonar equipment during an attack on a submerged submarine, and to know the duties of the ship's combat information center.

Wetlaufer is a mechanical engineer for the E.I. DuPont de Nemours and Company in Richmond, Va.

TEK BIDS FAREWELL TO SWARTHMORE

(with instructions to keep it as clean as possible) had a lot of catching up to do, from learning water-minded America's fetish for the daily bath, through the use of the toothbrush; to the handling of a knife and fork.

Tek's family here, in addition to Mr. and Mrs. Boyer, included Mahlon, a student at Ohio State University, Mark David, now eight, and the Boyer daughters and their husbands Mr. and Mrs. Robert Nuss and children of Glenolden, and Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Roxby of Columbus, O. They found Tek a normal boy and "a nice child to care for." And under the Boyers' care, he grew four inches and put on 24 pounds.

Swarthmore High School was more difficult than his school at home, the Ethiopian Church's School of the Holy Trinity in Addis Ababa. He liked all his teachers here, and his favorite subjects were algebra and physics.

His favorite sports were basketball, volleyball and soccer. He enjoyed playing pool downstairs in the Boyer's basement, reading the magazines, seeing motion pictures and looking at TV, and had met and consumed innumerable hot dogs and hamburgers. He also liked to chew gum (Not the bubble gum variety!) which, he commented, keeps the mouth busy. (He also courteously removed it before his interview!)

Back in June, Tek attended the Youth, Church, and International Affairs Seminar sponsored by the Board of Christian Education of the Presbyterian Church, U. S. A. About 60 high school youngsters attended this seminar, held for four days in Washington and three days in New York, and Tek was one of four overseas students included. Their focal point of study was India, Pakistan, and Ceylon. After a day of briefings, they met the Tanganyika and Pakistani delegations, were introduced to officials from UNICEF, the Special Fund, visited the State Department and the Peace Corps.

Tek's next trip took him to Lafayette, Ind., for the North American Reformed and Presbyterian Youth Assembly held July 19 to 28 at Purdue University.

And so, with James Craig, a Philadelphia Counsellor also attending the assembly, Tek took his final leave of the Boyers and Swarthmore, on July 17. Following the conference, he went by bus to Washington, D. C., with other International Christian Exchange students for two weeks there before flying from New York for Addis Ababa on August 1.

But Tek's adventures in foreign lands were not quite over, for somehow or other, in Athens, Greece, he was grounded because of a ticket irregularity. As a result, and undoubtedly to Tek's glee, he had about 10 days of sightseeing while being cared for at a Church Home in Athens.

It is Tek's plan to finish his last year at school, and if he does well, he has the hope of beginning a four year college education in his own country, toward which a sum is gathering in the Swarthmore Church.

Participate in March

Mrs. Monroe Beardsley of Rutgers avenue served as committee chairman for the members of the Unitarian Church of Delaware County who joined other Unitarians throughout the Nation in the Civil Rights March on Washington.

About 12 members and friends of the church took part in the march.

NEWS NOTES

Mrs. M. C. Durkee and three children of Watertown, N. Y., have been visiting for the past two weeks with Mrs. Durkee's mother Mrs. Charles Deacon of Lafayette avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Alexander of Juniata avenue had as their guests recently Mr. Alexander's mother Mrs. Frank Alexander, Sr., and her grandson Steven Stuart, both of Lansing, Mich.
