CROWD WAITING AS LOAN BOOTH OPENS

With $6100 toward the college quota of $25,000 at the end of the first day, the loan booth has shown its determination to "lend as they are fishing." The loan booth opened in Taylor Monday morning. The active campaign for subscriptions will begin Saturday afternoon, when Lieutenant Fleming of the Royal Flying Corps, who was wounded at Vimy Ridge, will open the rally on Taylor steps.

Among those on the "honor roll" for the first two days are President Thomas, Dean Maddison, Dr. Schenck, Dr. Ten- nent, Dr. and Mrs. de la Grange, Dr. and Mrs. Frank, Dr. and Mrs. Smith, Dr. Sahin, and Dr. Swindler. Joseph Connelly, an employee on the grounds, is for the second time at the head of the list as first subscriber.

Elaborate phone cards and buttons are given to all who make a cash payment.

Last year's $15,720 was raised on the campus for the Second Liberty Loan and $65,000 for the Third. This sum for the second loan was made possible by the fact that the college invested in bonds a part of the money paid by the students for the first loan.

MISS FRANKLIN LOAN CAPTAIN

Dr. Marion Parris, who twice last year led the Liberty Loan team to which Miss Franklin was assigned as head of the Women's Liberty Loan Committee in order to give more time to a piece of government work, was again in charge of the loan campaign.

The new head of the Liberty Loan Department, elected by the War Council, is Miss Margaret Franklin, Fellow in Economics at Bryn Mawr, 1914-15, who is this year taking one of the sections of the course in Economics.

Miss Franklin worked this summer in the New York National Bank of Commerce, where her position covered both financial and legal ground. In the face of an impending strike, she appealed to the workers and their families to resist the strike threat at Varick; and the year before was in Washington in the Tariff Division of the Bureau of Foreign and Domestic Commerce.

CLEVER PLANS OF 22 FRUSTRATED

Tireless Singing Reward

The time-honored ruse of a Sophomore acting as a Freshman outwitted the clever plot of '22 and won for '21 the parade song at the eleventh hour last Thursday night.

Parade night and the usual trudging and sleuthing went off quietly in accordance with the new rules. Brains not force won the day.

Freshmen Carry Out Plans

E. Anderson, the first Freshman chair for the Freshman group wrote fifty copies of the song in the middle of Monday night and sewed them into her head band, which she wore all day until, they were distributed at the Freshman class meeting, held Thursday evening in Menlo. The board of studying the words for a few minutes, each one of the class chewed up her piece of song book with warm hands for the further end. They were knitted, gowns and other strange costumes so that it was not be recognized by anyone else's group.

Speeches by the presidents of all the groups were made on and in boxes, just as the soap-box decried. Since all big gatherings have been prevented. Tonight's entertainment with dances and races was devised to take the place of a formal evening party in the gymnasium.

examinations. This sort of college work we are going to offer you this year, with no exceptions made and no exuses accepted. And we know from past experience that you will do your part and study faithfully and well. But we want you to do even better this year than you ever before because the need for the Bryn Mawr brand of education is greater than ever before. We wish to appeal to you to help us get all the slackers out of the college. This is no time for idlers anywhere and, above all, Bryn Mawr in war time is no place for them.

Splendid Record of Bryn Mawr Women

"I wonder if you truly realize how much you are expected of you if you are fortunate enough to look up to the reputation already won for Bryn Mawr by the splendid work of her graduates who have left the college to hear of it everywhere, and what seems to be the distinguishing characteristic of the work of Bryn Mawr women is their power of leadership. Within the last few days a great industrial plant and a very important Government department at Washington have written to me, saying they are willing to have Bryn Mawr women already employed have done so extraordinarily well and had exercised so great an influence over the women who have left the college they wanted as many more Bryn Mawr graduates as we could possibly furnish them."

"When we were motoring through Yellowstone Park this summer I wrote a boy who was attending a register of a very primitive camp there, the women at the desk put out her hand and said, 'Shake! My daughter and my niece are going to the great Bryn Mawr College. Do you know anything about it?""

Socialized World Needs Leaders

"After six weeks motoring through Colorado, Wyoming and Montana I have brought back a new understanding of the different kind of world that you will live in

BRYN MAWR SCRUBS

The old Lancaster Inn, which has been turned into an emergency hospital for influenza patients by the town commission- ers, is being scrubbed and swept by a group of Bryn Mawr women who are taking the spare time in their homes. Burning with a pile of kindling wood and, as the Community Center is attending to the housekeeping and furnishings, Miss Jane Smith superintended the work.

Oct. 16 Last Day for Course Books

Course books, fully stamped and signed according to the rules posted in Taylor, must be turned in at Dean Maddison's office before 6 p.m. next Wednesday (Oct. 16). For neglect of this regulation, a fine of five dollars is imposed.

Call Bulletin Boards List on Landscape

To the Editors of the College News:

When I came to rejoin last June, the one spot on the landscape was the bulletin boards. They were bad when I was in college and they are no better now. They always have not kept pace with the developments apparent right and left. Now the solution has come to me, after a good deal of worry, and I am planning to try to get out in a bandage factory where I am doing work at the same time. (Handwritten work) work for the duration of the war.

The idea is this: Concise the bulletin boards as a newspaper at least once a week, and on the second day of the week. Make the board as readable as a newspaper would be in ordinary paste, with everything in concise headline or newspaper form; have definite spaces for certain classified news, announcements, advertising of interest to campus readers; publish all items that are out of date.

Further developments I leave you to. I am going to clean up and go for the bulletin boards. I believe in them and am working to make them effective.

As organization, I suggest the first step is to have the bulletin boards take over the College News, who shall run them in conjunction with their regular sheet. To have the bulletin boards take over the College News, who shall run them in conjunction with their regular sheet, who shall be published twice a week.

In the factory, conditions are a little different, and we have definitely abandoned the idea of a newspaper. On the other hand, the idea of a shop newspaper is less worst they had for a long time. One bomb fell within a couple of blocks of our hotel, but fortunately fell in the street, and no one was hurt.

It is really quite an experience to hear the sirens go off. Then all the new people in town roll down to the college on the first floors of houses, and the old inhabitants just turn over with a sigh, and go to sleep again. I was so curious to go to bed the second night I frightened into the T-shirts from reaching the raiders, and the bursting of the shells sent up by anti-aircraft guns, was most interesting.

This place, La Courtine, is right in the heart of France, almost. We are not far from the offices of the newspapers, they are at the front door. I am glad to report that we have not been caught by surprise, and I can tell you more about things. The country is lovely, in high (2200 feet) and very cool.

The canteen here is a large one and it is a large and busy place. The temporary buildings are now being completed, and it is a large writing room in one and a billiard room in another, which will help a little and relieve the congestion in our room.

NO. 2—October 10, 1918
THE COLLEGE NEWS

More Students Work Than Usual
For the past three years, according to P. Clarke's "19, chairman of the Bases Committee, it is reported that the Bases House last summer to entertain and maintain 1500 students and that the total for the last 18 months is estimated at 500 guests from Springer House. A majority of the students, including Bayn Mawr students, their friends and the Administration of Miss Virginia Deems, set a new record for the long Beach vacation house.

Fewer business girls were entertained at Bases this summer than in previous years, and the committee decided not to entertain the guests principally to mothers and children. Clean-up Week in June was followed by the arrival of members of a Ladies' Missionary Society. Next came the kindergarten and nursery children, and last groups of Italian and American mothers and their babies.

Deems was assisted by Miss Virginia Lancaster, a graduate of Agnes Scott College, South Carolina, and E. Williams, Gray and Miss Ruth Anderson, also of Agnes Scott College, spent the entire summer at Bases. Miss Walter of Dobbs was selected as housekeeper.

The other workers were: Clean-up and Missionary Society Week—M. E. de la Cué, 1894, H. B. Catledge 1895, and K. A. C., 1896, and Miss B. B. Mitchell, 1898, and Z. Boynot 20, Marie Detour Boynton.

Clever Plans of '22 Fratruised
No Torches This Year
The Freshmen formed in a line under Pennsylvania Avenue, guarded by the Juniors and led by the Bayn Mawr Band, to run the athletic field. On account of the war no torches could be bought, but a huge bonfire blazed on the lower walls. When the Freshmen had finished "Hall, we are gathered here," to the tune of "Hall, hall, the gang's all here," the信号 tower triumphantly rang "Fog Horn for 22."

1922 ELECTS SECRETARY PRO TEM.
Sarena Herd, Merton, has been elected temporary secretary of the Beta. The temporary Freshman song-leader is Margaret Creith, Pembroke West.

The Beta members of the Freshman ministry will take their turn at presiding over the class determined by lots drawn by the Junior Committee. C. Anderson, chairman last week, is succeeded this week by M. Tyler, who will be followed in order by R. Gardiner, P. Friedman, and C. Smith.

REQUIRED EXERCISE BEGINS MONDAY
Following the vote of the mass meeting held Monday, the question of having no exercise this week, was voted down, two of which represent Physical Education. The new rules for drills. These periods must extend over at least two days a week, and are to be held at least two days a week when two periods may be directed. Required exercise begins Monday.

Smith Closes Class Rooms
Smith Class closed for the winter last Thursday, October 3d, because of the influenza epidemic. No student is allowed to leave the house unless he has been designated by the superintendent as requiring exercise and then only with another member of her own house. All students who have passed any course in nursing science are to be found in the Northampton hospital. These girls live together in one house house.

BATES HAS RECORD SUMMER

MONTHLY PAY DAY TO BE RECOMMENDED TO MASS MEETING
A tentative scheme for simplifying the collection of money in the Bases has been made by the Finance Committee. Each monthly pay day has been worked out for the benefit of the Base Council and will be submitted to a mass meeting as soon as possible. The scheme is:—

1. No visitors from off the campus are allowed to enter the halls of Montcoupé without special request by the Dean.
2. Students are not to visit any private house, whether on this side of Montcoupé or otherwise, without special permission by Dean Daft.
3. No meetings, except necessary academic or religious meetings, will be held on the campus.

The Health Department does not consider influenza epidemic anything really serious, but is taking every possible precaution against its becoming dangerous. Any student whose parents are sufficiently worried about the influenza situation as to refuse to come to college may be allowed to do so, provided she keeps up her college work at home, if it was under consideration.

WAR CREST RECOMMENDED
A recommendation that the college, as a whole, subscribe to the Fives-Court Week ice box will be made by the War Council at the next mass meeting. The War Crest includes practically all the big organizations, so that a monthly subscription to it obviates frequent collections for different causes. Students are asked to keep this in mind and "pay one day's pay a month" or one-thirtieth of their income.

COMPANY CAPTAINS SELECTED
To organize the Physical Development drills in each hall company commanders have been appointed by the class of 1919. Conception Boards: Rockefeller—R. F. Bourne 19 and M. C. Helft 19; Pembroke East—J. Peabody 19; Pembroke West—H. Huntting 19 and W. Worster 21; Dedegah—A. Thorndike 19 and D. Schurman 19; Pembroke—P. France 19 and J. Herrick 20; Lyvfrand—M. C. Millard.

A standard drill will be taught to the platoon and squad leaders by these captains. Regular drills, as required by the captains' required exercise, begin next week.

The graduates are organizing a separate company. Later in the season, competitive drills will probably be held between the different companies.

WHEAT EARRERS OF YEMENS TIE ON THE CAMPUS
Six yellow members of the Yemens have returned to college this year. The wearers of yellow, N. Lancaster 20, M. Tyler 19, G. Stevens 20, S. Stiles '13, G. Herne '19, M. M. Carey '20, and F. Peacock 20.

The second-class includes H. Holmes 20, A. Mosher 20, E. Cecil 21, R. Blits 21, and H. Farrell 21 are third-class associates.

STOP, LOOK AND CONSIDER BEFORE YOU THROW AWAY!
HAY, newspapers, old clothes, fruit stones, nuts, shell—write ribbons and boxes.

From the Junior Committee and they will sort them out and turn them over to the Red Cross for shipment.

Collectors will come around daily in each house. Don't be too lazy to sort among your goods and clothes.

The collectors have time to go around to each room, haven't time to reward those who do not help and help those who do.

The army of W. A. C. E.'s collects old clothes, shoes, metal things, etc., from members of the freshmen and the last Wednesday of each month for a service army in Bayn Mawr.

Last year H2 was made toward supporting a girl at St. Hilda's School in Wu Chang, China, by the sale of newspapers collected by the Junta Committee. How much are you going to make this year? Are you going to make it this year?

VARIETY CAPTAINS FOR THREE MAJOR SPORTS ANNOUNCED

Fine Records Augur Well
With Mary Tyler '19 as varsity hockey captain, and M. M. Carey '20 as varsity water-polo, the outlook for Varsity athletics this year is bright. Captains this year are outstanding. Mary Tyler made her letter every year since she entered school, and M. M. Carey has lettered in Freshman year, when she substituted on the water-polo team.

M. Tyler, who was a member of the All-Philadephia star before entering college, plays a speedy game at left wing. She bubbled with enthusiasm on the Varsity basketball team last year, having played on '19's second team throughout the season. M. Carey is a member of the Athletic Board of the C. A. and was 1919's Sophomore president.

E. Lancaster, who has captained her class team for the past three years, plays forward on Varsity water-polo and basketball.

She has been a member of the Athletic Association board since Freshman year, and is now indoor manager and junior vice-president. She and Senior Manager are rooming together for the third year.

FIVE MORE JUNIORS DROP OUT
D. Griggs, N. Offutt, R. Wight, P. Harte, and M. B. R. Nevin are among the five who are not returning to college this year. D. Griggs has gone to Camp Humphries, Va., as a special to the army. N. Offutt will take a business course in Baltimore. E. Wight is a student nurse at New York. G. Stoelke has enrolled in the student Nurse's Reserve. M. Steele was secretary of the Self-Government Association for this year and assistant treasurer of the Athletic Association her Freshman year.

SPORTING NEWS
G. Herne and M. Tyler have been elected captain and manager of the Seniors' basketball team, that has elected M. M. Carey and B. Weaver.

M. Warren '21 captains her class team in basketball, and M. W. McElroy, who was manager last year, is manager this year.

On account of the influenza quarantine department, the Freshman basketball had been closed this week. Freshman authorities have postponed the basketball, acted by P. J. Menz, D. Lebin, R. Darley, and E. Cope, in order named, head in 1930's straw vote for membership in the Secretary of the Athletic Association held last Friday. The office was held by P. Helmer, who did not return to college.

One-piece bathing suits will be allowed in the pool this year, according to a recent ruling of the Junior committee.

The graduate's tennis tournament is being played this week. More games reported for hockey practice last Saturday than for any practice during the past year.

Physician examinations for Sophomores, Juniors, and Seniors began this week. Because Dr. Ro.'s been too busy with influenza inoculations there have been no medical exams since college opened, and Freshmen have been on dry hockey as soon as they passed the physical.

Necessity is the Mother of Invention
The halt, the lane and the blind are behind. This year, according to the Freshman committee in Philadelphia in D. Clark's car, rechristened the Charles of Pain. H. Spalding and E. S. Cope '20 are in the front, and K. Haworth are the passengers. As the use of trains is a thing of the past in this plains-interstate car, the car makes weekly trips. All who need medical treatment in Philadelphia are advised to report the Freshmen at the hospital. It is not the time—Now.

GERMAN BOOKS, NOW SUPPRESSED, THAT WILL COME AGAIN—PERENNICH
A German condensation ofGerman militarism, in translation by Professor Perrenich, has been placed in the New Book Room. Published by the Carnegie Endowment for International Peace, "The Problem of an Armed Peace Court of Justice," by Hans Wehberg, and Walther Schickling's "International Union of the Hague Conferences," both written before 1914, admit the evils of Prussianism. Since the war the German government as suppressed both books, it is rumored.
"We owe, most unfortunately, our empire not to peaceful domestic effort, but to war," writes Professor Schickling, "and militarism is so embedded in our homeland that the peaceful organization of the civilized world is no longer an ideal in our eyes."

Sooner Than She Had Planned
Fung Keli Lii 20 is the first student to be graduated from Bryn Mawr on the Chinese Scholarship. Fung Keli came to 20 in the Canton Christian College a year ago and transferred to the Shipsey School in New York. He was expected to take two years to prepare for college, but passed off all but five points. F. Lii was at the college during the summer at Silver Bay and attended the Bryn Mawr Delegations Meetings. She returned to China there to A. Macinnis, a teaching camp and has now passed off all but two conditions.
M. Donnelly is chairman of the Chinese Scholarship Committee and Mrs. Smith treasurer. The fund is made up from alumni and friends of the college.

BRITISH POET'S DAUGHTER
HERE TELLS TELL OF WORK IN INDIA
The past week-end at college was made interesting for many students by the presence on the campus of Miss Mary Dobson, warden of the Christian College in Bombay. Miss Dobson is the daughter of the British poet, Austin Dobson, and a graduate of Cambridge University, spoke in Chapel on Friday on her work among Indian women, and that after told, in a more informal way, many thrilling tales of her experiences in the East.
One of the anecdotes of the capture of Jerusalem told by Miss Dobson was of the fulfillment of the old prophecy of Daniel that one thousand three hundred five and thirty years would see the end of the "abomination of desolation" for his people. Strangely enough, said Miss Dobson, the year 1915, just 1335 years after the prophecy, is the year from which the Mohammedans reckon their calendar, has seen the end of the Mohammedan rule in Palestine offered by the British Army under Gen. Allenby.

"FELLOW WORKERS WITH GOD"
DR. BARTON'S TEXT
"The world is being made over; God invites you to be fellow workers with Him in the new creation," was the challenge of Dr. Barton last Sunday in the Sunday School service of the old Main Line local branch.
Dr. Barton indicated in a convincing way some of the forces of righteousness in the new world whom we should cultivate. They included, four years ago, that the men and women whom they knew would have been capable of the generosity, the heroism, and the Christ-likeness which they have since shown, he said.

NO ARMY CORPS FOR HAVERFORD
Authorities Decline Government Offer
Haverford College, unlike most of the other large colleges for men, will have no division of the Students' Army Training Corps. The board of managers of the college voted unanimously to decline the offer of the government to establish such a unit, and have issued a statement explaining their decision. They hope to form a body of citizenship and of higher education held by the Society of Friends; who are worth much more in the present condition of their bodies that those ideals can best be made to serve the need of the nation if the regular pressure leading to the baccalaureate is maintained without interruption or confusion.

Harvard Crimson Discontinued
The Harvard Crimson has suspended publication, following an order from Col. Williams, commander of the Students' Training Corps, prohibiting prospective members of the corps from having any connection with a college publication.

Work in Factories Fart of New Bryn Mawr Course
Students Placed During Summer in New England Garments
Running a lathe in a factory at 18 cents an hour was one of the experiences afforded by the new government course in Industrial Supervision which began at Bryn Mawr last June. All of the field work of the course was done in New England factories under the direction of Miss Anna Amsden, who received weekly reports from the students, held conferences with them, and arranged visits to various establishments.
Living in Lysistrata, twelve students, ten of whom were on scholarships, began the course June 11th. The first month was spent in Bryn Mawr and the remaining two in New England industrial plants. The course is being given at the request of the Y. W. C. A. War Council under the Bryn Mawr Carola Wooldrecht Department of Social Research, of which Dr. Susan M. Kingsley is head, to train women to be employment managers and industrial superintendents of women's work.

Visit Plants Near Philadelphia
Observation trips were made during the month of June in Bryn Mawr to establishments in and near Philadelphia where employement work was being carried on: among them the Edmonds Muntzine Plant, the Miller Lock Manufacturing Co., the Sutro Hosiery Co., the General Electric Co., the Fayetteville, Flusco, and the Curtis Publishing Co. Three hours a week were given to industrial observation, four to statistics, and six to laboratory problems.

Going to Boston, July 12th, the students were placed by Miss Amsden to various manufacturing plants, where they would gain practical experience in actual manufacturing, in employment work, and in scientific management. They are introduced by the War Department and everywhere welcomed by progressive manufacturers.

Trims Leather in Shoe Factory
One student worked for three weeks in the stitching room of the McMillan Shoe Co., Manchester, as an "around-the-room girl." Another student was in the cutting room of the same plant, trimming leathers. Of the others, four were with the U. S. Carriage Co., three at the Repeating Arms Co., New Haven; three in the General Electric Co., Lynn; two in the Dennison Manufacturing Co., Framingham; one in the Lewis Manufacturing Co., Walpole, Mass., a plant under scientific management manufacturing gauges and bandages; one in the Scott Manufacturing Co., Watertown; one in the Wm. Green Manufacturing Co., one in the Chestnut Silk Mills, South Manchester, and one in the Hood Rubber Co., Watertown. Other plants visited were the Norton Grinding Wheel Co., the Plant Shoe Co., the New England Confectionery Co., and the Cutler Patent Arms.

The college, in making the first public statement of the manufacturing in which the students worked, wishes to give recognition to these manufacturers who so conscientiously and cooperatively offered the opportunity to students of the college for training in their plant. Without exception the firms placed the students in positions where they could get the best training.

The result proves that college women can, under careful supervision, work in factories side by side with other employees without either their fellow students or the foremen realizing that they were college women.

The college women proved so efficient that observations were made by the foremen when they were transferred to other departments.

Course Concludes Through Winter
This group returned to college and will take up regular seminars—such as the Labor Seminary under Miss Byrson—in the Colleges Wooldrecht and allied departments. They will spend three third of the time in field work in the various establishments in and near Philadelphia, each student concentrating on one or two establishments.

President Thomas' Address

in after the great changes that will follow the reconstruction period at the close of the war have taken place. It will be a world in which special privileges have disappeared, in which people will stand on their own merits, in which everyone—women as well as men—will have a job to do, a world of freedom and brotherhood. The West makes a little of what is coming in the new world, what these of us who are older have learned in the old world, and what you will have. In this new socialized world that is coming I can think of nothing more intelligent than wise intelligent leadership. Your generation must supply that. You must act, act, learn, and research. And you must see to it that ability not mediocrity is in the saddle, that the great mass of the people are levelled up and levelled down. Leaders are desperately needed, and where can your generation look for leaders if not to the girls now studying in colleges like Bryn Mawr?

Women Must Draft Themselves

"Your friends, brothers, or relatives, at the front, fighting the powers of medieval darkness and oppression. Those who are not yet at the front are required to give up liberal studies and take military and technical training in all the colleges of the United States. They have taken the oath as soldiers and are already in military service. They are under the liberal, military discipline, not permitted to leave the camps, required to live in common, give up secret societies, commit crimes, betray secrets and many things dear to the heart of college boys, and in a few months they will be drafted into officers' training camps. Their country requires their ultimate service and they give it with love and pride. You are not so fortunate as they. You are not called with such a clarion voice to serve your country, but humanity is just as clear. It is just as clearly your duty at a time like this to give up many of the amusements and side shows of ordinary college life, like your brothers, and devote yourselves as strenuously to your work. I wish that it had been possible for the Government to draft the women in our colleges into a vast student army and put them under military oath to study their hardest and best. You must draft yourselves. If the war goes on we must remember that the girls now in college, who study faithfully and well with their tearing, will have had other kinds of training, but they will have missed forever the vision and insight and power that come from believing, by faith, in intellectual work."

Wilson's Address a Summons to Women

"In the President's address to the women on woman suffrage on Monday, September 11, 1919, you have received your call to service. Nothing that President Wilson has done or said has been more than this great address. In elevation of sentiment and language, voice and sympathy, it is second to none of his great speeches, never since his Fourth Liberty Loan address in New York City on this basis of the terms of a just peace and calling for a 'league of nations' to be organized at the end of the war. I can do no better than to close by reading to you the most thrilling parts of this splendid tribute to world work done by women in the war: It were to do the work only when one can do after the war. It is a summons to a new life, not to dedicate yourselves afarforth. It is a call to the highest kind of service you are capable of. It is to work with the President of your country who has already summoned your brothers to fight. It is the call to which, as women, you are called by the President of your country who has already summoned your brothers to fight. It is the call which respondents with joy and pride. It is a task which needs the profoundest preparation through study and thought. We must give ourselves to this preparation here in Bryn Mawr College during the coming year."
